POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time,
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year

or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
*Up above the world so high, like a diamond
in the sky*. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King
(King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford,

"Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. *Lucky, lucky,

lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun*.
*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage

it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us,
precious difference, the grand multiplicity
of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—

because my family labored long nights
around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves
of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me
the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
*Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place
of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet*

from crying. We won't forget you.
Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat,

and winter's cold, The seasons pass,
the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music
to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,

And songs to Alma Mater raise;

While our hearts rebounding thrill,

With joy which death alone can still.

Summer's heat or Winter's cold,

The seasons pass, the years will roll;

Time and change will surely show

How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

President Gee looks forward to personally congratulating graduates on the stage after the class recessional has concluded.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Kevin Boyle

Kevin Boyle is Humanities Distinguished Professor of History at The Ohio State University. He teaches 20th-century American history, with an emphasis on class, race, and politics.

He received his BA from the University of Detroit in 1982 and his PhD from the University of Michigan in 1990. He joined the Ohio State faculty in 2002.

Professor Boyle received the National Book Award for nonfiction in 2004 for Arc of Justice: A Saga of Race, Civil Rights, and Murder in the Jazz Age. Arc of Justice also received the Chicago Tribune Heartland Prize, the Simon Wiesenthal Center's Tolerance Book Award, and the Society of Midland Authors Book Award and was a finalist for the Pulitzer Prize and the National Book Critics Circle Award. It also was named a New York Times notable book for 2004, a State of Michigan notable book for 2005, and the 2007 selection for the Detroit metropolitan area's community-wide reading program.

Professor Boyle's other books include The UAW and the Heyday of American Liberalism, 1945-1968; Muddy Boots and Ragged Aprons: Images of Working-Class Detroit, 1900-1930, which he coauthored with Victoria Getis; and an edited volume, Organized Labor and American Politics, 1894-1994: the Labor-Liberal Alliance. He is at work on a new book, The Splendid Dead: An American Ordeal, which is to be published by Houghton Mifflin.

His articles have appeared in Diplomatic History, The Journal of American History, Labor History, The Michigan Historical Review, and various anthologies. He also has published essays and reviews in the Baltimore Sun, Chicago Tribune, Detroit Free Press, Inc. Magazine, New York Times, and Washington Post.

Professor Boyle has held fellowships from the Rockefeller Foundation, the Fulbright Commission, National Endowment for the Humanities, American Council of Learned Societies, and the John Simon Guggenheim Foundation. In 1997-98 he held the Mary Ball Washington Chair in American History at University College Dublin, Ireland. He serves on the advisory board for the Walter P. Reuther Library and on the editorial boards of Labor History and Labor: Studies in Working-Class History of the Americas. He is also a Fellow of the Society of American Historians and a member of the PEN American Center.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Ólafur Ragnar Grímsson

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Ólafur Ragnar Grímsson, the fifth and current president of the Republic of Iceland, is a respected statesman and environmental activist. He is a world leader in sustainable management of natural resources to control climate change.

President Grímsson has brought the lessons of Iceland's clean energy achievements to many parts of the world—to the United States and countries in Asia, Africa, and Europe—strongly advocating the use of geothermal energy as a renewable, economically viable, and reliable resource. He has actively supported training and research on desertification control and carbon sequestration, creating joint projects by scientists from different countries. He was among the initiators of a Global Roundtable on Climate Change that brought together representatives of nearly 100 European and American corporations, as well as experts, scientists, and opinion leaders.

In addition to his leadership role in environmental issues, President Grímsson also has been a strong advocate for peace and conflict resolution. He served as chair of the organization committee for the Council of Europe conference, "North-South: Europe's Role 1982-1984," and as president of the international association of Parliamentarians for Global Action (PGA) from 1984 to 1990. Under his leadership, the group organized a Peace Initiative of Six Heads of State.

President Grímsson earned his BA in economics and political science at the University of Manchester, England, in 1965 where he also completed his PhD thesis in political science five years later. He subsequently became the first professor of political science at the University of Iceland. He first took a seat in Althingi, the legislative assembly, in 1978 and served as Iceland's Minister of Finance 1988-1991.

President Grímsson has for several years been a board member of the Special Olympics, and he played a major role in the international drug prevention campaign, Youth in Europe, which now enjoys the participation of 19 European cities. He also has been active in promoting cooperation between Icelandic and foreign universities and has lectured at prominent American academic institutions, including Harvard, Columbia, Brown, and The Ohio State University, where he presented a Distinguished International Lecture on Climate Change in 2007.

Among many international awards he has received is the Indira Gandhi Peace Prize, which he received on behalf of the PGA, and the Jawaharlal Nehru Award for International Understanding, which he will receive early next year.

Mildred Lynn Chavous

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Mildred Chavous served for more than three decades in The Ohio State University Graduate School's Office of Educational Administration. At the time of her 1996 retirement, she was director of graduation services and degrees. Graduate faculty and students remember her as the person who reviewed the format of dissertations and theses.

During her tenure at Ohio State, Mrs. Chavous served on numerous university-wide committees, advisory boards, and commissions, including the Ohio State Senate Select Committee on Minorities and Women, the search committees for the vice presidents for research and graduate studies and for development, the Council on Academic Excellence for Women, the Critical Difference for Women Campaign Steering Committee, Ohio State's 300th Commencement Celebration Committee, and the Faculty and Staff Health Care Benefits Committee.

Her work within the university has been recognized with a number of awards, including the Distinguished Staff Award, the Ohio State Citizenship Award, and a Certificate of Honor for her work with the Faculty and Staff Assistance Program Advisory Board.

Mrs. Chavous' impressive record of community service encompasses education, health, human services, and the cultural arts. She has served as a trustee of the Franklin County Board of Retardation and Developmental Disabilities, Ohio Humanities Council, Mid-Ohio Health Planning Federation, Cultural Arts Center Advisory Council, Thurber House, and Players Theatre. She has been honored by the Columbus Chapter of the Coalition of 100 Black Women, the Office of the Mayor of Columbus, the Black Women of Courage, Carats, Inc., and the Columbus Cancer Clinic. She has received the United Negro College Fund Distinguished Leadership Award and three separate commendations from the Ohio House of Representatives and the Ohio Senate.

She was a founding member of the Twin Rivers Chapter of The Links, Inc., a national service organization of women with a threefold aim—civic, educational, and cultural. She is a charter member of the Columbus Chapter of Circle-Lets and served as national president from 1999-2001.

She was the first African American woman president of the Columbus Cancer Clinic, the first African American and woman to chair the United Way Campaign at Ohio State, and the first African American president of the Pro Musica Sustaining Board.

John W. Creighton Jr.

John W. Creighton Jr. is strategic director of the Seattle-based venture capital company Madrona Venture Group. He was president and CEO of Weyerhaeuser Company from 1990 to 1998. Following the 9/11 terrorist attack, he served as interim chair and CEO of United Airlines, leading the airline through complex union negotiations. Subsequently, he became vice chair of Unocal Corporation. He currently serves on the board of Intrepid Learning Solutions and Saltchuk Resources in Seattle.

A two-time graduate of The Ohio State University, Mr. Creighton earned his BS in business administration in 1954 and his juris doctor in 1957. He also holds an MBA from the University of Miami, Florida, and is a certified public accountant.

He has remained close to his alma mater, serving on The Ohio State University Foundation Board and providing guidance to the university's development efforts in the northwestern United States. He was instrumental in planning the renovations to the Thompson Library, offering significant support to the Special Collections Reading Room and the office of the head of Rare Books and Manuscripts.

He has played a leading role in helping the Moritz College of Law rise to national prominence through the creation of the innovative Lawyers and Leadership program, which exposes law students to the values of leadership in their community and their professional and personal lives. In 2003, he received the Distinguished Alumnus Award from the Moritz College of Law and the Cullman Executive Award from the Fisher College of Business.

Mr. Creighton has been actively involved with a number of professional and civic organizations, including the National Council of the Boy Scouts of America, where he is a director and past national president, and the Oregon Shakespeare Festival. He is a director and former chair of the Washington State University Foundation Board and a civilian aide to the Secretary of the Army for the state of Washington.

He is co-chair of the Seattle World Trade Center and a recipient of the Prime Minister's Trade Award from the government of Japan, which recognizes individuals who have made outstanding efforts to promote trade between Japan and the rest of the world.

The Ohio State University 2009 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Now, the Class of 2009 has an opportunity to leave a legacy of its own and participate in Ohio State's unique history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received while leaving an indelible mark on their alma mater, to be enjoyed by students for years to come.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.09 (or other amount) as part of the 2009 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2009 and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Graduates:

Today is a day for celebration. After countless hours of studying, days of anticipation, and years of dedication, you are leaping into the next stage of your life. Humor me in believing that it was not too long ago when I was in your shoes. I remember those feelings very well: nostalgia for the past, anxiety for the present, and excitement for the opportunities that await.

You are entering a world that needs you and the skills and knowledge you gained at Ohio State. Feeling nervous? Embrace that feeling, knowing that you may experience struggles in times to come but reminding yourself that you have faced and overcome many struggles as a college student. Although you may seek immediate answers and solid solutions, instead relish the large victory that you have just won for yourself. Your time at Ohio State and the diploma you receive today will always be yours. And you will be the architect of your future. Set your standards just out of reach, and yours will be a story worth telling.

Your generation has a wonderful ability to collaborate, to think outside the box, and land on your feet in an unexpected place. Think of today as a stepping-stone. I urge you to use it to explore how you can make this state, this nation, and our world a better place. As a graduate of The Ohio State University, you are uniquely prepared to effect change. I expect you to lead the way. And I hope you will drop me a postcard to tell me how you are doing.

O-H!

E. Gordon Gee
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of more than 440,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected virtually: ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities, including alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and alumni societies connected with your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Autumn Quarter 2009, as of 5:00 p.m., December 4, 2009, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

Colleges of the Arts and Sciences

Executive Dean: Joseph E. Steinmetz

The Arts and Sciences include the University's programs in the arts and humanities, the biological and mathematical/physical sciences, and the social and behavioral sciences, as well as interdisciplinary programs across the arts and sciences.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—

a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:
