ABOUT TODAY'S CEREMONY

Today's ceremony on the Oval is a departure from recent tradition at Ohio State, but it is not a first. During the university's first 50 years, Commencement took place on or around the Oval, including outdoor ceremonies in 1909 and 1918, very near today's site. Last year, spring Commencement was moved to the Oval as Ohio Stadium, site of most spring commencements since 1927, underwent renovation and was unavailable for use. Our desire to maintain the tradition of all graduates at one ceremony necessitated a return to this historic spot in the academic center of the university. This spring, we continue the tradition as we celebrate the spring 2000 Commencement on the Oval.

Photography

A professional photographer has been retained to take a photograph of each graduate as the diploma is received. Because of the large number of graduates, and because there is no suitable area from which to take photos of diploma distribution, guests are asked to remain in their seats. A free color print of the photograph will be mailed to the graduate's permanent address within one month after graduation. You may purchase additional photos, but are not obligated to do so.

A Commencement video produced by WOSU-TV is available for purchase from The Ohio State University Alumni Association. Call (614) 292-4438 for more information.

Excerpts from the Commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, at 5:30 p.m. today.

President Kirwan looks forward to personally congratulating graduates and their guests immediately following the ceremony in front of Bricker Hall, in the northwest corner of the Oval.

*Oh! come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.*

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

J.C. Watts, Jr.

J.C. Watts, Jr. is a member of the U.S. House of Representatives, representing the 4th Congressional District of Oklahoma. He was first elected to Congress in November 1994 and won his third term in 1998 with 62 percent of the vote. He has built a solid reputation as an active proponent of cultural and economic renewal of communities through investment and savings and school choice, and by allowing faith-based programs.

A native of Oklahoma, Representative Watts received his bachelor's degree in journalism from the University of Oklahoma in 1981. During his college years, he was quarterback for the Sooners football team, leading them to consecutive Big Eight Championships and Orange Bowl victories. He was also voted the Most Valuable Player in the 1980 and 1981 Orange Bowl wins over Florida State. From 1981 to 1986, he started for Ottawa and Toronto in the Canadian Football League and was voted the Most Valuable Player of the Grey Cup, the CFL's Super Bowl, his rookie season. He was inducted into the Orange Bowl Hall of Honor in 1992.

After returning to Oklahoma, Representative Watts served as a youth minister at Sunnyland Baptist Church in Del City, Oklahoma, from January 1987 until December 1994, when he was named associate pastor. His political career began in 1990 when he was elected to the Oklahoma State Corporation Commission. After serving as chair of the three-member commission, he decided to seek the 4th District Congressional Seat.

In 1996, Representative Watts received national attention for his speech at the Republican National Convention. The following year, he was selected to give the Republican response to President Clinton's State of the Union address. At the start of his third term, Representative Watts was elected to the fourth highest-ranking Republican position by his Republican colleagues in the U.S. House to serve as House Republican Conference Chair. He also serves on the Armed Services Committee.

His many honors include the 1996 Junior Chamber of Commerce's Ten Outstanding Young Americans Award, the Jefferson Award for promoting economic prosperity and free enterprise, and the Christian Coalition's Friend of the Family Award. He is a committed spokesperson for groups including the Fellowship of Christian Athletes and various anti-drug campaigns across the state and nation.

He currently serves on the board of representatives of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes in Oklahoma and plays a leading role in the Orphan Foundation of America. In addition to his congressional duties, he travels across the nation as a guest preacher.

The Ohio State University is honored to welcome this distinguished legislator and humanitarian to address today's graduating class.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Robert Coleman Richardson

Doctor of Science

Robert Coleman Richardson, the F.R. Newman Professor of Physics and vice provost for research at Cornell University, is internationally known for his research in low-temperature physics.

Born in Washington, D.C., Professor Richardson received his bachelor's and master's degrees in physics from Virginia Polytechnic Institute in 1958 and 1960, respectively, and his doctorate in physics from Duke University in 1966. He joined the Cornell faculty in 1967, working in the laboratory of David Lee, professor of physics and senior researcher. In collaboration with Douglas Osheroff, they worked on cooling techniques and NMR instrumentation for studying low-temperature helium liquids and solids. In 1971, they made the accidental discovery that liquid helium-3 undergoes a pairing transition similar to that of superconductors—a discovery that led to a shared Nobel Prize in physics in 1996.

During his tenure at Cornell, he has remained active in teaching introductory physics and has prepared a series of video-taped lectures for undergraduate students. He and his wife, Betty, a lecturer in physics at Cornell, are currently writing an introductory college physics textbook with companion CD ROM, to be published by McGraw-Hill. His book, Experimental Techniques in Condensed Matter Physics at Low Temperatures, with Eric N. Smith and 21 Cornell graduate students, was published in 1988.

Professor Richardson was elected to the National Academy of Sciences in 1986 and served as chair of its physics section from 1989 to 1992. He is a fellow of the American Physical Society and the American Association for the Advancement of Science, and he is the recipient of two Guggenheim Fellowships. His honors include the British Physical Society's Eighth Simon Memorial Prize in 1976 and the American Physical Society's Buckley Prize in 1981, both shared with Lee and Osheroff.

Ohio State proudly adds its honor to those already held by this distinguished researcher, scholar, and teacher.

Richard J. Solove

Doctor of Science

Richard J. Solove is a partner with Columbus Realty Investments Ltd., a real estate development firm formed in 1999 from the merger of his company, R.J. Solove & Associates and the Don M. Casto Organization. Columbus Realty Investments focuses on shopping center, apartment, and office building development and management.

A native of Columbus, Mr. Solove received his B.S. degree in pharmacy from Ohio State in 1948 and is a member of Rho Chi, the pharmacy national honorary society, and Phi Rho Alpha, the College of Pharmacy honorary. He eventually owned three Columbus drugstores before selling them in 1963 to devote himself full-time to real estate development.

Long an active supporter of his community and his alma mater, Mr. Solove was involved in the original discussions leading to the establishment of a state-of-the-art cancer hospital in Columbus. He was a founding member of the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Research Institute Foundation, serving as president from 1989 to 1994, and is currently a member of the hospital's governing board of directors. His many years of dedication to and support of cancer research were recognized in 1999 with the naming of the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute.

Mr. Solove served as finance chair for U.S. Representative John R. Kasich's early campaigns in Ohio's 12th District. He is a member of the Columbus Foundation Board and a past member of the board of directors of The Heritage House. In 1998, he received a Distinguished Service Award from Ohio State and was recently inducted into the Columbus Board of Education Hall of Fame.

Ohio State recognizes with pride the commitment of this dedicated friend to the search for a cure for one of society's most feared diseases.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

William Julius Wilson

Doctor of Humane Letters

William Julius Wilson, one of America's leading scholars of urban poverty, is Lewis P. and Linda L. Geyser University Professor at Harvard University. Only 17 of Harvard's 2,200 professors currently hold university professorships, Harvard's highest professorial distinction.

Professor Wilson received his bachelor's and master's degrees from Wilberforce University and Bowling Green State University, respectively. After receiving his doctorate in sociology and anthropology from Washington State University in 1966, he taught sociology at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst before joining the University of Chicago faculty in 1972.

In 1990, he was appointed the Lucy Flower University Professor and director of the University of Chicago's Center for the Study of Urban Inequality. He joined the Harvard University faculty in July 1996.

Named as one of Time magazine's "America's 25 Most Influential People" in June 1996, Professor Wilson is the author of several controversial works. The Declining Significance of Race, published in 1978, advanced the theory that class and economics play a more relevant role than race in the plight of the black urban poor. He further explored the effects of the lack of blue-collar jobs on urban neighborhoods in The Truly Disadvantaged, selected as one of the 16 best books of 1987 by the New York Times Book Review. The book also received The Washington Monthly Annual Book Award and the Society for the Study of Social Problems' C. Wright Mills Award. His latest book, When Work Disappears: The World of the New Urban Poor, was selected as one of the notable books of 1996 by the editors of the New York Times Book Review and received the Sidney Hillman Foundation Award.

A MacArthur Prize fellow from 1987 to 1992, Professor Wilson has been elected to the National Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Philosophical Society. In 1988, he was a recipient of the National Medal of Science, the highest scientific honor in the nation. He is a member of the President's Commission on White House Fellowships; the Center for Advanced Study in the Behavioral Sciences, which he currently chairs; and The Century Foundation.

Ohio State is honored to recognize the many scholarly achievements of this dedicated observer of the human condition.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Ben M. Jones, III

Distinguished Service Award

Retired investor Ben M. Jones has been an invaluable friend to The Ohio State University Libraries and the College of Humanities.

Now living in Florida, Mr. Jones spent most of his career in the Columbus area where he began as an insurance executive. He retired from the insurance business at the age of 34 to become a private investor. Although he received his bachelor's degree in economics from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, he formed many ties with Ohio State over the years, never missing a Buckeye football game.

His lifetime passion for collecting books is reflected in his support of the University Libraries, especially in the areas of special purchases and preservation. His personal library includes important collections on the Civil War, American history, North Carolina history and literature, and baseball.

He is a strong advocate for undergraduate studies and has established an award for excellence in undergraduate teaching in the College of Humanities—the largest prize at Ohio State for outstanding service in the undergraduate classroom. He has long supported the College of Humanities annual autumn auction, and, in 1998, his winning bid allowed him to ring Ohio Stadium's Victory Bell after the football Buckeyes' win over Michigan.

Ohio State gratefully recognizes the enduring friendship of this dedicated man of letters.

Nancy W. Patterson

Distinguished Service Award

Nancy Patterson has been involved with The Ohio State University since she joined 4-H as a young girl. That early experience has led to a lifetime of dedication and support of the university, especially through Ohio State Extension activities.

A 1963 graduate of Ohio State with a bachelor's degree in education, Mrs. Patterson taught elementary and nursery school for several years before retiring to spend more time with her family and their 350-acre fruit farm in Ohio's Geauga County.

Over her five decades of service to the university, Mrs. Patterson has served at every level within the Ohio State Extension system as a 4-H volunteer, county advisory board member, state advisory board member, state development committee member, and president of the Ohio 4-H Foundation. As president of the foundation, she increased funds raised from $250,000 to more than $1 million and encouraged Ohio counties to establish 4-H endowment funds. She also provided leadership in building political support for Ohio State through her advocacy of 4-H, Extension and the university at large with government officials.

During his tenure as Ohio governor, George Voinovich appointed Mrs. Patterson to the Preservation of Farmland Task Force where she served as an influential ambassador for Ohio State, highlighting the capacity of the university to respond to critical issues in Ohio.

Long active in Geauga County affairs, Mrs. Patterson has served on the Geauga County Park District Foundation Board of Directors, the West Geauga Parent-Teacher Organization Board, the West Geauga Education Foundation Board of Trustees, the Geauga Hospital Benefit Steering Committee, and the Geauga County Farm Bureau Board. She has served as board member and president of the Ohio Fruit Growers Society's Women's Auxiliary and as chair of the society's Scholarship Committee. She is also active in state and national Republican politics.

It is with deep respect that Ohio State recognizes the many years of service and commitment given by its alumna to the university and the state.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

For more than a century, Ohio State graduates have come together to present a Class Gift to celebrate graduation and benefit future generations of students at the university. The Class Gift tradition started in 1891, when, on the eve of graduation, students planted five elm trees on the Oval.

For many years, the annual Class Gift was designated to a single project, such as the Orton Hall Chimes, the Victory Bell, the Gateway entrance, and the University Seal. In 1992, the Class Gift program was revised to allow students to make a gift to any facet of the university that is important to them—their college, school, department or program, the libraries, hospitals, or student organizations.

In 1996, the Class Gift became part of a larger giving program at Ohio State—called Campus Campaign. The Campus Campaign encompasses staff, faculty, and student giving and has been very successful in providing vital funds to the university.

In 1998, a new tradition began. Prospective graduates were asked to give $19.98 during their graduation year and, in turn, 1999 graduates were asked to give $19.99. In keeping with the new tradition, graduates in the Class of 2000 have been asked to pledge $20.00 to support an Ohio State fund that is important to them. To date, more than $42,000 has been donated by the Class of 2000. Efforts are ongoing to involve students who have not yet participated in the Class Gift and those who will graduate later this year.

The university gratefully recognizes the commitment of the Class Gift Student Volunteers for their dedicated efforts in support of their alma mater.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT KIRWAN

It is appropriate that this—the 352nd Commencement of The Ohio State University—take place on the university's most notable landmark, the Oval. In a real sense, the Oval is the crossroads of our campus. It is the place where many things converge: old friends and new ideas, light banter and serious conversation, noisy exchanges and quiet reflection. Here in the shadow of the William Oxley Thompson Library and in the shade of oak trees, academic purpose merges with collegiate life, just as it does today with this Commencement ceremony.

You, the members of the class of 2000, come to this crossroads of the campus today to mark a crossroads in your lives. As you move forward from this occasion, I am certain you will cherish always your days at this remarkable university, a place that has helped forge the paths your lives will follow, a place that is the source of friendships you will enjoy throughout your lifetime, and a place that will be the font of wonderful memories in the years to come. British Poet Laureate John Masefield expressed well the enduring character of a university. He said:

*"There are few earthly things more beautiful than a university.
It is a place where those who hate ignorance may strive to know,
Where those who perceive truth may strive to make others see;
Where seekers and learners alike, banded together in the search for knowledge,
Will honor thought in all its finer ways,
Will welcome thinkers in distress or in exile,
Will uphold ever the dignity of thought and learning
And will exact standards in these things."*

Ohio State is and always will be such a place for you. This university has prepared you well for what we hope will be a lifetime of productivity, personal fulfillment, and civic responsibility. No matter where future opportunities may take you, The Ohio State University will always be with you—as a primary source of your education and some of your fondest memories. Through time and change, you will always be Buckeyes.

Today, your families and friends, your faculty and mentors recognize your hard work and celebrate your notable achievements. Tomorrow, we will begin to follow your new accomplishments with great pride. We have no doubt of the success you will enjoy in your careers and your communities. Please know of my personal best wishes as you join the company of educated women and men and the more than 500,000 proud graduates of The Ohio State University.

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you have joined the ranks of Ohio State alumni. For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve it and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and all those who helped you reach this day go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

INCLEMENT WEATHER

No indoor facility on campus is large enough to accommodate the graduating class and 30,000 guests. In the case of inclement weather, every effort will be made to hold Commencement as planned. Commencement will take place on the Oval, unless weather conditions are dangerous or severe, in which case the ceremony will be canceled.

Ohio State officials will be in continuous contact with the National Weather Service to monitor approaching weather. If it is feasible to delay the start of the ceremony and wait for clearing or less severe weather, the start of the ceremony may be delayed up to one hour. Should this happen, any changes will be announced by 7:30 a.m., before graduates are required to report for Commencement. Your patience and cooperation will help facilitate this plan.

In case of cancellation

If it is determined that severe weather will not permit us to hold Commencement, the ceremony will be canceled. Once cancellation has been officially announced, graduates should report to the following locations one hour after cancellation to receive their diplomas.

It is strongly advised that graduates and guests prearrange a meeting place in case the ceremony is canceled. Guests should not go to the Ohio Union Ballrooms where most diplomas will be distributed to graduates.

Diplomas will remain in the following locations until 3 p.m. on Commencement day. Diplomas not picked up by 3 p.m. will be taken to the University Registrar's office in 1010 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive. Diplomas will be available for pick-up there between 7:30 a.m. and 4:30 p.m., June 12-16. If a diploma remains unclaimed after June 16, it will be mailed to the home address on record within one month of Commencement. Mailing addresses can be verified by calling the University Registrar's office at (614) 292-1960; fax (614) 292-4940; or e-mail at commence@exchange.ureg.ohio-state.edu.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In the light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: Black, long or short sleeves with a reshaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, with honors in the liberal arts, and with honors in pharmacy.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Seafoam Green
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine	Gray

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:
