POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by David Citino, Professor of English and Creative Writing and University Poet Laureate

(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—to kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater. Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, on Monday, June 13, at 5:30 p.m.

Weather permitting, President Holbrook looks forward to personally congratulating graduates and their guests immediately following the ceremony in front of Larkins Hall, southeast of Ohio Stadium.

William H. Hall

Doctor of Public Service

William H. Hall is vice president for student affairs at The Ohio State University. Prior to joining Ohio State's staff, he served as director of housing at the University of Southern Illinois, where he earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in education. He has also had a distinguished military career with the Ohio Army National Guard. He is a graduate of the U.S. Army War College and retired in 1998 with the rank of brigadier general after 30 years of service.

Mr. Hall came to Ohio State in 1977 as director of residence and dining halls and, later, assistant vice president for student affairs. He was named vice president in 2001. As vice president for student affairs, he oversees a large operation that includes housing and residence education, dining services, student government, student activities, student health services, student advocacy, recreational sports, disability services, the Younkin Success Center, counseling and consultation services, career advising, off-campus student services, community relations, the Schottenstein Center, the Blackwell Inn, the OSU Parent Association, student judicial affairs, the Multicultural Center, Greek life, student leadership development, and student orientation.

Always determined that student interests be at the forefront of any university decision, Mr. Hall has played a leading role in a number of major initiatives to enhance the student experience at Ohio State, including reducing residence hall density, improving the move-in process, revising the Code of Student Conduct, enhancing student leadership development, and offering diversity training for student leaders.

Under his leadership, several major construction projects to benefit students have been completed or are in progress, including a new 500-bed student housing complex—the first at Ohio State in more than 30 years; the new state-of-the-art

Recreation and Physical Activity Center; and a new Ohio Union, now in the planning stages.

Mr. Hall has been active in promoting student safety on and off campus, leading successful efforts to promote responsible student behavior surrounding major athletic and other campus events. He has been innovative and effective in bringing together collaborative projects, bridging university departments, and involving community and civic leaders.

His dedication has been recognized by a number of awards, including the Award of Excellence from the Columbus Urban League in 1989, the University Distinguished Affirmative Action Award in 1991, and the William Henry Watson, Jr. Award from the Office of Minority Affairs in 2005. Ohio State proudly recognizes this dedicated public servant and beloved member of the university family, and we welcome him as he addresses our graduating class.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Glen H. Elder, Jr.

Doctor of Social Science

Glen H. Elder, Jr., is the Howard W. Odum Distinguished Professor of Sociology and Research Professor of Psychology at the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill.

The Ohio native earned his bachelor's degree in 1957 from Pennsylvania State University, his master's degree in 1958 from Kent State University, and his doctorate in 1961 from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. After five years at the University of California, Berkeley, Professor Elder joined the University of North Carolina faculty as an associate professor, becoming full professor in 1971. From 1979 to 1984, he served as a professor at Cornell University before returning to the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, where he also holds appointments as Fellow of the Carolina Population Center, director of "Population and Aging" at the Carolina Population Center Training Program, and co-director of the Carolina Consortium on Human Development.

Professor Elder is widely credited with founding the sociological field of life-course studies, and his contributions span the disciplines of history, sociology, demography, and psychology. His early work, including his classic publication, Children of the Great Depression, demonstrated that it is the particular juncture of life stage and historical event that determines the course of human lives. In recent years, he has continued to examine life-course dynamics in diverse social contexts, studying how families adapt to depressed urban or rural environments. A prolific scholar, he has published some 200 journal articles and book chapters and 15 books/edited collections. He has given numerous major lectures and seminars at universities and scientific forums throughout the world and has trained and mentored countless young scholars.

The recipient of many honors over the course of his distinguished career, Professor Elder has received, among other recognitions, the John Simon Guggenheim Memorial Fellowship, the Burgess Award from the National Council on Family Relations, a Research Scientist Award from the National Institute of Mental Health, and the Senior Scholar Award from The Spencer Foundation. He is a Fellow of the American Psychological Association, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the Gerontological Society of America.

Carl E. Wieman

Doctor of Science

Nobel Laureate Carl E. Wieman is Distinguished Professor of Physics at the University of Colorado in Boulder. He is also a Fellow of the Joint Institute for Laboratory Astrophysics (JILA), a physics research institute operated jointly by the University of Colorado and the National Institute of Standards and Technology.

The Oregon native received his bachelor's degree in physics from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology in 1973 and his doctorate in physics from Stanford University in 1977. Professor Wieman then joined the University of Michigan as assistant research scientist in the Department of Physics, becoming assistant professor in 1979. In 1984, he joined the physics faculty at the University of Colorado, becoming full professor in 1987.

In the 1980s, Professor Wieman became interested in the cooling and trapping of atoms, investigating the limits to which atoms could be cooled. His research with Eric Cornell in cooling atoms to a few billionths of a degree above absolute zero resulted in the formation of a new form of matter, the Bose-Einstein condensate (BEC), in 1995. Today, BEC research has become a major international field of physics research, and Professor Wieman was awarded the Nobel Prize in Physics in 2001. He continues to study the properties of this new form of matter.

In addition to his research activities, he has been involved in research and innovations in undergraduate physics education and the broader understanding of science and has given many presentations to high school classes and general audiences. He has developed a popular physics course for non-scientists and has led a large project developing online interactive simulations for teaching physics.

Professor Wieman is an elected member of both the National Academy of Sciences and the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. His work has been recognized with many awards, including the Davison-Germer Prize in Atomic Physics of the American Physical Society, the Lorentz Medal of the Netherlands Royal Academy, the King Faisal International Prize in Science, the Benjamin Franklin Medal in Physics, and the 2004 National Professor of the Year for contributions to undergraduate education.

Daniel L. Heinlen

Distinguished Service Award

Daniel L. Heinlen became president/CEO emeritus of the 123,000-member Ohio State University Alumni Association in December 2003 after 38 years of service, including 30 as CEO. During his tenure, the association more than doubled in size and moved into its new home, Longaberger Alumni House, in October 1999.

Mr. Heinlen graduated from The Ohio State University in 1960 with a bachelor's degree in social administration. After a brief stint working for the YMCA in Pittsburgh, he returned to Ohio State in 1965 to work for the Alumni Association, becoming president and CEO in 1973. He was publisher of The Ohio State Alumni Magazine and secretary of the association's board of directors, the Alumni Advisory Council, and the Ohio State Student Loan Foundation. He served as an ex-officio member of The Ohio State University Foundation Board, sat on the Academy for Distinguished Teaching's executive council, and chaired the 2002 Ohio presidents' Inter-University Council Alumni Advocacy Planning Taskforce.

Mr. Heinlen was the first non-faculty member to serve as president of the university's Faculty Club Board of Control and served on the university's last three presidential search committees. In 2003, he was presented with the highest Ohio State recognition awarded to volunteers, the Everett D. Reese Medal, signifying exceptional philanthropic service to the university.

In addition to his university work, Mr. Heinlen served as chair of the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education (CASE), an international organization for institutional advancement professionals, and received its District Five Distinguished Service Award. In 2004, at the CASE International Assembly, he received the Ashmore Award for extraordinary service to the advancement profession.

He is a founding member and past president of the Council of Alumni Association Executives and a three-time chair of the Big Ten Alumni CEOs. He was president of the Alumni Directors of Ohio's State Universities and founding chair of the SGA Forum, a gathering of the nation's self-governing alumni associations' chief executives.

As president of DLH, LLC, and a senior consulting vice president of Grenzbach/Glier and Associates, Mr. Heinlen continues as a frequent consultant to alumni associations and their business partners across North America.

Ronald L. St. Pierre

Distinguished Service Award

Ronald L. St. Pierre is associate vice president and professor emeritus as well as special assistant to the senior vice president for health sciences at The Ohio State University.

Dr. St. Pierre's more than three decade affiliation with the university began as a student in 1961. He received his master's and Ph.D. in zoology and anatomy, respectively, from Ohio State after graduating from Ohio University. After a one-year hiatus for a post-doctoral fellowship at Duke University, he returned to Ohio State in 1967 as an assistant professor of cell biology, neurobiology, and anatomy, rising to full professor and department chair in 1972. In 1981, he joined the administration of the College of Medicine and Public Health, where he served for more than 20 years, including nine years as senior associate vice president for health sciences and academic affairs, as associate dean of the College of Medicine, executive vice dean of the College of Medicine and Public Health, and interim dean for public health in the School of Public Health. He retired in September 2002.

During his tenure at the university, Dr. St. Pierre continued to carry a teaching load, serving as professor in the School of Public Health and professor in the Department of Anatomy and Medical Education. In addition, he served on numerous university committees and task forces. He was a university senator, participated in search committees for key university administrators, chaired the Committee on Honorary Degrees, was a member of the Advisory Committee on Promotion and Tenure, and chaired the Academic Program Review of the University Health Service.

Dr. St. Pierre played a leading role in securing accreditation for the university's School of Public Health, recruiting a number of eminent researchers to the faculty, and in establishing a national center for Parkinson's Disease research and care at the Medical Center. He has published more than 80 articles in the scientific press and is co-author of the book Immunohematology.

His service at the community, state, national, and professional levels is exemplary, and he has been recognized with the Lederle Medical Faculty Award, the Ohio Rehabilitation Association's Special Recognition Award, and the Governor's Award for Community Services, among other honors.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

In 1891, a group of students planted five elm trees on the Oval the evening before graduation and the Class Gift tradition was born. Since that time, Ohio State students have continued to celebrate their commencement with gifts to the university.

For 2005, the Student Campaign Advisory Board is focusing its Class Gift efforts to help fund the Beautification of Mirror Lake. Rich in history and tradition, this project touches the lives of most students who walk the Ohio State campus each day. Students may also designate their Class Gift to their college's or school's Annual Fund or any other fund they choose.

The Student Campaign provides an opportunity for students to become involved in Ohio State's unique campus-wide culture of philanthropy. As part of this culture, the Class Gift is a special way for graduating students to express their thanks for the education they received and leave a legacy that will benefit future Ohio State students for years to come.

Graduates who wish to make their 2005 Class Gift may contact the Student Campaign Coordinator in the Office of Annual Giving or go to the web site at www.giveto.osu.edu/classgift.

Congratulations on your graduation, and we hope you look forward to this next chapter in your lifelong relationship as a Buckeye.

Thanks for your support!

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT HOLBROOK

Commencement represents a culmination and celebration of your accomplishments at The Ohio State University. It is the most solemn and yet the most joyous and exhilarating ceremony held at any university. It is a day for academia, family, and friends to gather and share with you their tears and laughter, their love and hope, and their tremendous pride for your many years of hard work and achievement. It is a day you will long remember.

Today, you join a family of more than half a million Ohio State graduates and step into a new world of rich and challenging opportunities. As graduates of The Ohio State University, you have good reason to feel a strong sense of pride and accomplishment—as well as excitement about a promising future. Working with your professors and the university community, you have built a well-rounded education and polished it with relevant experience. Upon this foundation, your education will continue to grow and help you create a lifetime of productivity, personal fulfillment, and civic responsibility.

Through time and change, you will surely remember your years at Ohio State as some of the happiest, most important, and most influential experiences of your life. And I am confident that your firm bonds to this great university will only grow stronger. Please accept my congratulations and personal best wishes on this very special day.

Karen A. Holbrook
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you have joined the ranks of Ohio State alumni. For you, one era has passed, and another is about to begin.

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve it and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and all those who helped you reach this day go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

Cordially,

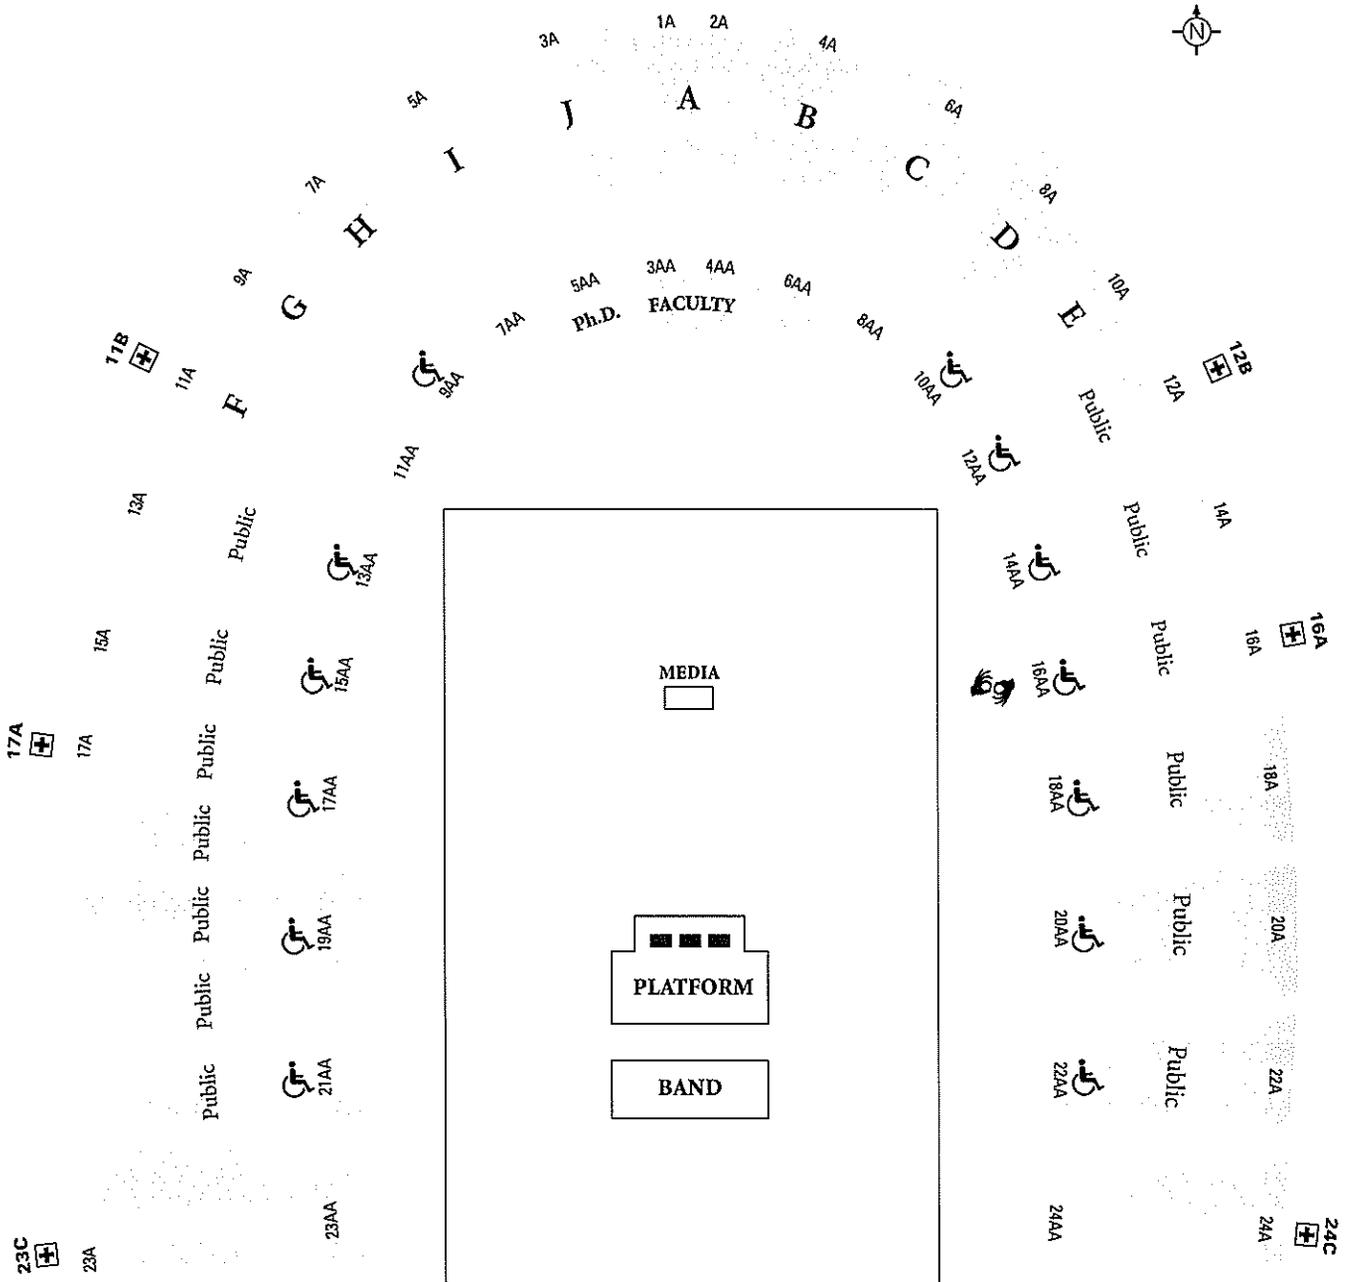

Ted A. Beattie
Chair, Board of Directors

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Spring Quarter 2005, as of 5:00 p.m., June 3, 2005, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study or degree received.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (Ph.D.) .....	Gray
(Others).....	Black
Colleges of the Arts and Sciences .....	White
College of the Arts (B.A., B.S.I.D.) .....	White
(Others).....	Brown
School of Music (B.A.) .....	White

School of Allied Medical Professions .....	Green
College of Nursing .....	Apricot
College of Optometry .....	Seafoam Green
College of Pharmacy.....	Olive Green
College of Social Work.....	Citron
College of Veterinary Medicine.....	Gray

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Photography

As a courtesy to those persons receiving degrees today, please remain seated in the stands until the graduates have received their diplomas and moved past the stadium gates. Photographs may be taken from the stands at any time during the ceremony. However, only press photographers are permitted on the field.

A professional photographer will take a photograph of each graduate as the diploma is awarded. A free color print of the photograph will be mailed to the graduate's address within one month after graduation. You may purchase additional photos, but you are not obligated to do so.

Complimentary Programs

A limited number of programs are available on a first-come, first-served basis. Requests should be sent to the Office of Commencement and Special Events, 1060 Blankenship Hall, 901 Woody Hayes Drive, Columbus, OH 43210-4160.

THE LONG WALK

In 1893, the master plan for The Ohio State University campus proposed a group of buildings around a central open space. The first reference to this area as “the Oval” was around 1910. A year later, a very elaborate, geometric pattern of walks within the Oval was added to the plan. This included a lengthy east-west walk—today anchored on the west end by the William Oxley Thompson Library and on the east end by Page Hall and the Wexner Center for the Arts. By 1919-20, and possibly earlier, this came to be known as the “Long Walk.” In the early years, freshmen were forbidden to be on the Long Walk. The penalty—occasionally enforced by upperclass students—was to be thrown into Mirror Lake.

As one of Ohio State’s most notable landmarks, the Oval is a key aspect of the university’s identity, as well as a hub of its active daily life. In June 2004, a major restoration project got underway to ensure the Oval’s historic character while, at the same time, to address the contemporary needs of the campus. Walkway replacement, an irrigation system, new turf, and new lighting will all help preserve the Oval’s integrity and make the area better able to withstand and accommodate a wide variety of student activities and special events. The construction project was completed this year in time to celebrate spring commencement—one of Ohio State’s most cherished traditions.
