POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year

or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond
in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King
(King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford,

"Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage

it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Barack H. Obama

DOCTOR OF LAWS

Barack H. Obama is the 44th President of the United States.

His story is the American story—values from the heartland, a middle-class upbringing in a strong family, hard work and education as the means of getting ahead, and the conviction that a life so blessed should be lived in service to others.

With a father from Kenya and a mother from Kansas, President Obama was born in Hawaii on August 4, 1961. He was raised with help from his grandfather, who served in Patton's army, and his grandmother, who worked her way up from the secretarial pool to middle management at a bank.

After working his way through college with the help of scholarships and student loans, President Obama moved to Chicago, where he worked with a group of churches to help rebuild communities devastated by the closure of local steel plants.

He went on to attend law school, where he became the first African American president of the Harvard Law Review. Upon graduation, he returned to Chicago to help lead a voter registration drive, teach constitutional law at the University of Chicago, and remain active in his community.

President Obama's years of public service are based around his unwavering belief in the ability to unite people around a politics of purpose. In the Illinois State Senate, he passed the first major ethics reform in 25 years, cut taxes for working families, and expanded health care for children and their parents. As a United States Senator, he reached across the aisle to pass groundbreaking lobbying reform, lock up the world's most dangerous weapons, and bring transparency to government by putting federal spending online.

He was elected the 44th President of the United States on November 4, 2008, and sworn in on January 20, 2009. He and his wife, Michelle, are the proud parents of two daughters, Malia, 14, and Sasha, 11.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Annie Liebovitz

DOCTOR OF ARTS

Annie Liebovitz is one of the most influential photographers of our time. She is well known for her portraits, which have come to define an era, but her work covers a wide range of genres, from reportage to landscapes.

Ms. Liebovitz was born in Waterbury, Connecticut, and studied painting and photography at the San Francisco Art Institute. In 1970, when she was still a student, she began working for Rolling Stone. She became the magazine's chief photographer three years later. Over the course of a decade, Ms. Liebovitz established herself as the country's foremost rock music photographer and an astute documentarian as well as portraitist. She published photo essays on scores of stories, including her accounts of the resignation of Richard Nixon and of the 1975 Rolling Stones tour. In the early 1980s she began working for Vanity Fair and then Vogue, where she expanded her collective portrait of contemporary life. She also created several prominent advertising campaigns, most notably for American Express and the Gap, and documented the creation of the White Oak Dance Project with Mikhail Baryshnikov and Mark Morris.

Ms. Liebovitz's work has been exhibited at many museums, including the National Portrait Gallery and the Corcoran Gallery in Washington, D.C., the International Center of Photography in New York, the National Portrait Gallery in London, and the Pushkin State Museum of Fine Arts in Moscow. Ms. Liebovitz also has published several collections of photographs, among them Women (1999, with Susan Sontag), A Photographer's Life, 1990-2005 (2006), and Pilgrimage (2011).

A recipient of many awards, Ms. Liebovitz has been designated a Living Legend by the Library of Congress and a Commandeur in the Ordre des Arts et des Lettres by the French government. In 2005, in the American Society of Magazine Editors' compilation of the 40 top magazine covers of the past 40 years, Ms. Liebovitz held the top two spots: #1 for her Rolling Stone image of John Lennon and Yoko Ono taken the day Lennon was shot, and #2 for the photograph of the pregnant and nude Demi Moore taken for Vanity Fair. In 2012, she was honored with both the Los Angeles Museum of Contemporary Art Award to Distinguished Women in the Arts and the Wexner Prize from the Wexner Center for the Arts at The Ohio State University.

Thomas D. Pollard

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

A professor of cell biology and molecular biophysics and biochemistry at Yale University, Thomas D. Pollard has focused a lifetime of research on the molecular basis of cellular movements.

With a career spanning more than four decades, Dr. Pollard has led research teams to study how cells divide into two during cytokinesis as well as discovering and characterizing proteins that cause cells to move. His fundamental and important discoveries are taught in cell biology courses at both the undergraduate and graduate levels at The Ohio State University and around the world. His innovative textbook for undergraduates is now in its second edition.

As a faculty member at Harvard Medical School, Johns Hopkins Medical School, and The Salk Institute, as well as Yale, Dr. Pollard has become known far and wide as an exceptional scientist and a towering figure in the field of cell biology. He has excelled in bringing an unusual cadre of cutting-edge technologies to the field, ranging from genetics and quantitative microscopy to biochemistry and biophysics.

Known as an engaging lecturer and teacher, Dr. Pollard is now Sterling Professor of Molecular Cellular and Developmental Biology and dean of the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences at Yale. His work includes the discoveries of motor proteins different from those in muscles as well as the Arp2/3 protein complex. In addition to his teaching and research, he has served as president of two national scientific organizations. Dr. Pollard is a fellow of the National Academy of Sciences of the United States, the American Academy of Microbiology, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the Biophysical Society, and the Institute of Medicine.

His creative, careful, and important work has been published more than 350 times in the most eminent and widely read peer-evaluated scientific journals. His leadership in both academics and research has been recognized by scholars around the world, resulting in numerous awards including the Rosenstiel Award from Brandeis University, the E.B. Wilson Medal from the American Society for Cell Biology, and the Gairdner International Award in Biomedical Sciences.

Dr. Pollard earned his undergraduate degree in chemistry and zoology from Pomona College in 1964, and his medical degree from Harvard Medical School in 1968.

Reinhard Rummel

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Reinhard Rummel of Munich, Germany, has dedicated his career to determining the Earth's gravity field with the utmost accuracy. Until his retirement in 2011, he served as a full professor and head of the Institute of Astronomical and Physical Geodesy at the Technical University of Munich. He is also the Carl von Linde Senior Fellow at the university's Institute of Advanced Study.

A world-renowned geodesist, Dr. Rummel's lifelong academic pursuit in the area of gravity field determination was launched by a formative experience studying at The Ohio State University. After earning his PhD in 1974 from the Technical University Darmstadt, focusing on mathematical statistics and its application in the field of physical geodesy, he worked for several years with Ohio State

Professor Richard Rapp as a postdoctoral researcher developing theories he would apply throughout his prestigious 35-year career.

Dr. Rummel's crowning achievement was serving as the chief scientist and initiator of the GOCE mission sponsored by the European Space Agency, which involves satellite mapping of the Earth's gravity field over a 20-month period with unprecedented uniform accuracy. He was instrumental in convincing European space agencies of the necessity of the dedicated gravity mission and has spearheaded scientific work on the project and analysis of the project's data.

Data generated by the satellite will produce important findings in the areas of oceanography, geophysics, and geodynamics. The highly accurate gravity models derived from the GOCE mission will serve to improve our understanding of ocean currents and sea level rise.

Dr. Rummel is known for down-to-earth clarity in his academic writing and his lively lecturing style, which has made him a favorite among his students. The coauthor of 14 books on geodesy and related topics as well as more than 175 scientific papers, he has received many prestigious science awards and is considered a leading scientist in the fields of physical and satellite geodesy. He is a member of the Academy of Science for Germany, Bavaria, and Hungary; and he is a Fellow of the American Geophysical Union and a Fellow of the International Association of Geodesy, for which he also has chaired numerous committees.

Carole A. Anderson

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Carole A. Anderson has dedicated more than 25 years to The Ohio State University, both as a key administrator and a distinguished professor in the health sciences. Dr. Anderson held faculty appointments in the College of Nursing, College of Dentistry, and the Department of Psychiatry in the College of Medicine. She has played an instrumental role in shaping nursing education, as well as broadly influencing university policy through myriad leadership positions.

From 1986 to 2001, Dr. Anderson served as dean of the College of Nursing, where she raised the college's research profile and brought technology to the forefront in nursing education. A strong advocate for applying classroom knowledge and research to real-world training, she developed new curriculums to better prepare the next generation of nursing students to be competent care providers. She also blazed trails in graduate education, creating practitioner-training programs and spearheading the state's first nurse midwifery program.

Known as an exceptional leader, Dr. Anderson held numerous top positions in the university administration. She has served as interim dean of the Graduate School and executive dean of Health Sciences, in addition to serving as vice provost for Academic Administration and assistant vice president for Health Sciences. Additionally, she served as dean of the College of Dentistry, where she led a restructuring and alignment of the college with other health science colleges at Ohio State.

Dr. Anderson is a past president of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing. She is also a fellow of the American Academy of Nursing and a past editor of the academy's journal, Nursing Outlook. She is a charter member and two-term chair of the Scientific Review Group of the National Institute of Nursing Research, and served on the National Advisory Council of the National Institute of Health's National Institute for Dental and Craniofacial Research.

In Columbus, Dr. Anderson has served the community as a member of the Board of Health, the City of Columbus Health Department, and the board of directors of the Columbus AIDS Task Force. She currently serves on the board of directors of the Columbus Neighborhood Health Centers. In 2001, Dr. Anderson received the YWCA's Women of Achievement Award.

She received her undergraduate degree in nursing, a master's in psychiatric nursing, and a PhD in sociology from the University of Colorado.

George A. Skestos

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

One of Ohio State's most engaged and dedicated partners, George A. Skestos has three decades of leadership and philanthropy at the university and in the central Ohio community. For 25 years, he led the Homewood Corporation, a land development and residential construction company that he founded in 1963. Since his retirement, Mr. Skestos has devoted himself to public service.

His commitment to The Ohio State University includes volunteer leadership at the highest level, personal engagement as a university ambassador, and generous philanthropic support. Mr. Skestos served on The Ohio State University Board of Trustees from 1991 to 2002, including one year as chair. During that time, he guided campus building projects, including the historic Ohio Stadium renovation and construction of the Jerome Schottenstein Center. He currently serves on the boards of University Hospital, University Hospital East, and the Wexner Medical Center.

The benevolent support of Mr. Skestos and his wife, Tina, reaches every corner of the university, from athletics to the Wexner Center for the Arts to the College of Veterinary Medicine to Ross Heart Hospital. They also have funded and named three medical chairs—the Hagop S. Mekhjian, MD, Medical Ethics and Professionalism Fund; Julius Skestos and Diana Skestos Chair in Urology; and Justine Skestos Chair in Minimally Invasive Neurological Spinal Surgery.

Along with his wife, Mr. Skestos founded both the IHS Foundation, of which he is currently president and trustee, and the Salem Lutheran Foundation, which he serves as trustee. In June 2012, he was named a trustee of the New College of Florida.

In the central Ohio community, Mr. Skestos has served on several boards, including Huntington Bancshares, Central Benefits, and the Midland Life Insurance Company. He also has held appointments with the Ohio Housing Commission, Ohio Water Development Authority, and Central Ohio Regional Airport Authority.

Mr. Skestos earned his undergraduate, MBA, and law degrees from the University of Michigan.

Justine A. Skestos

For more than 30 years, Justine "Tina" Skestos has been a devoted public servant and Ohio State ambassador. Among her many community involvements, she has held leadership roles at BalletMet, the Columbus Symphony Orchestra, and the Greater Columbus Arts Council. She was also a longtime member of the Franklin Park Conservatory board of trustees, contributing greatly to the thriving success of the conservatory today.

Mrs. Skestos is a passionate advocate for Ohio State's College of Veterinary Medicine, bolstering the college's teaching, research, and clinical programs. As a valued volunteer at the college, she serves on the Dean's Advisory Council. Her leadership was key to the renovation of the Veterinary Medical Center's Hospital for Companion Animals lobby. She also founded the "Bandana Program," an initiative designed to create goodwill and raise public awareness of the Veterinary Medical Center.

A champion of women's initiatives at Ohio State, Mrs. Skestos has served as a member of the National Council for OSU Women and continues to be an active supporter of the Critical Difference for Women and Women & Philanthropy programs at the university. In addition, she served on the host committee for the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute's annual "Up on the Roof" event from 1994 to 2001.

Both Mrs. Skestos and her husband, George, are generous benefactors of The Ohio State University. Together, they have given their time and treasure to the Wexner Medical Center, Wexner Center for the Arts, the College of Arts and Sciences, Department of Athletics, and the College of Veterinary Medicine, among others. They were honored in 2004 with the Gerlach Development Volunteer Award, which recognizes significant service to the university.

Mrs. Skestos earned her undergraduate degree in physical education and a master's in sports administration from Ohio University.

It's just not the same without you.

BUT FOR OHIO STATE

Your connection to Ohio State lasts long after graduation.

Commemorate that connection as graduates have done for more than 100 years by making a class gift to the university. Gifts of all sizes are welcome and those totaling $75 or more will make you a Sustaining Member of The Ohio State University Alumni Association.

Sustaining Members are eligible for premium benefits including:

- Eligibility for the 2014 football ticket lottery
- Access to programs designed for new graduates of Ohio State
- A one-year subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine

All graduates of Ohio State receive these alumni benefits:

- Access to the Bill and Susan Lhota Office of Alumni Career Management
- Alumni Association online services including access to an alumni directory, lifetime e-mail, and the alumni online library
- Discounts from OSUAA affinity partners

For more on the benefits for new graduates of Ohio State, visit go.osu.edu/YoungAlumni
And to make a class gift to the university, visit studentcampaign.osu.edu

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Graduates:

Take a moment and look around you. Your friends, family, and fellow new alumni are together today to celebrate one of life's major milestones—your successful passage through four (or more!) rigorous years of higher education.

Believe it or not, I once also wore the robes of a young college graduate and I can assure you I still vividly remember the feeling of that enormous achievement—one that I hope prompts you to stand taller and walk a bit more proudly.

In the spirit of the occasion, I offer a few words of encouragement. The world today is full of unique and exciting opportunities for college graduates. Indeed, whatever discipline you have decided to pursue for yourself, endless possibilities are now open to you to create, to repair, to heal, to inform, and to inspire in previously unimaginable ways. My belief is that wherever there is a job to be done, no one is better suited for it than a graduate of Ohio State.

Personally, I am more confident than ever before in the knowledge and skills you have earned by making your way through this great university. The wisdom you have gained will make you valuable stewards of the community in which you belong, as well as the world that you inherit. More and more frequently, it is a world that calls for inspiration and imagination. But this—to my mind—means only that everyone should grow very accustomed to hearing, with increasing frequency: O-H!

Sincerely,

E. Gordon Gee

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. As you receive your degree today, you join a distinguished body of more than 500,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

The degree you hold in your hand today is the culmination of the well-rounded education you have received at Ohio State. You are among a distinguished group of alumni, for today's alumni are tomorrow's leaders. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and your alma mater to make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected and actively engaged in many ways, including virtually through ohiostatealumni.org, and through involvement in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, you will be receiving a basic membership in the Alumni Association that includes an electronic subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities to connect and engage, including through alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and through alumni societies in your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD)	Gray
(Others)	Black
College of Arts and Sciences
BA	White
BA Journalism	Crimson
BAE, BFA	Brown
BM, BME	Pink
BS, BS Design	White
Fisher College of Business	Drab
College of Dentistry	Lilac
College of Education and Human Ecology
Education	Light Blue
Human Ecology	Maroon
College of Engineering	Orange
Austin E. Knowlton School of Architecture	Blue-Violet
College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences	Maize
School of Environment and Natural Resources	Blue-Green
Moritz College of Law	Purple
College of Medicine	Green
School of Health and Rehabilitation Sciences	Green
College of Nursing	Apricot
College of Optometry	Seafoam Green
College of Pharmacy	Olive Green
John Glenn School of Public Affairs	Peacock Blue
College of Public Health	Salmon
College of Social Work	Citron
College of Veterinary Medicine	Gray

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity
of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—

because my family labored long nights
around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio" in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me
the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place
of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass,

the years will roll, Time and change

will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music
to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates,
and, again, Congratulations.
