POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citlino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time.

Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho In Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.

I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.

In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.

I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect.

And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare. Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,

President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

STUDENT SPEAKER

Gerard C. Basalla

CLASS OF 2017

While completing his undergraduate studies in political science and strategic communication at Ohio State, Gerard C. Basalla excelled as a student leader dedicated to initiating positive change. Demonstrating an unwavering commitment to the university and its student body, Mr. Basalla began his career with Undergraduate Student Government during his first year on campus, serving as an intern and member of the Outreach Committee.

In his second and third years, he tackled the roles of Social and Behavioral Sciences senator, deputy director of the Student Affairs Committee and deputy chief of staff. Ultimately, in his final year at Ohio State, he was elected president of USG for 2016-17.

As USG president, Mr. Basalla represented the university's undergraduate population in high-level academic, financial and policy discussions. His priorities focused on improving college affordability, promoting diversity and inclusion initiatives and enhancing mental health resources.

During Mr. Basalla's tenure, USG passed two resolutions through Ohio State's University Senate. The first increased textbook affordability, which will save students approximately $2.5 million in 2018 through timely textbook ordering.

The second recommended the inclusion of a mental health statement on course syllabi. In light of these accomplishments, he was nominated for the National Campus Leadership Council's Student Body President of the Year Award.

Beyond USG, Mr. Basalla has been involved with event planning for the Ohio Union Activities Board and served as the public relations chair for the Delta Tau Delta fraternity. He also served on the University Senate, participating in the Steering Committee and Council on Student Affairs. In the summer of 2016, he interned for Ohio Senator Rob Portman in his Washington, D.C., office, working alongside staff members who were responsible for the senator's legislative and administrative operations.

Born in Parma, Ohio, Mr. Basalla will remain in the Buckeye state after graduation with plans to become the special assistant to the president and CEO of the Columbus Partnership, a nonprofit group of chief executives from leading businesses and institutions in Columbus who are committed to improving the economic vitality of the region.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Charles F. Bolden Jr.

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION

Nominated by President Barack Obama, Major General Charles F. Bolden Jr., USMC (Ret.), served for nearly eight years as the 12th administrator of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration until his retirement in January 2017. As administrator of NASA, Major General Bolden — the first African American to hold the office — led a nationwide team to advance the missions and goals of the U.S. space program, shepherding a new era of space exploration focused on aeronautics technology development and increased utilization of the International Space Station.

Born in Columbia, South Carolina, Major General Bolden received an appointment to the U.S. Naval Academy, where he completed his undergraduate studies in electrical science in 1968. He went on to serve in the Marine Corps as an aviator, flying more than 100 combat missions in Vietnam, Laos and Cambodia in the early 1970s.

In 1977, Major General Bolden earned a graduate degree in systems management from the University of Southern California, and was selected as an astronaut candidate in 1980.

He traveled into orbit four times as a member of NASA's Astronaut Corps, commanding two missions and piloting both the Columbia and Discovery shuttles. His missions included the deployment of the Hubble Space Telescope and the first American-Russian joint international space mission. He was inducted into the U.S. Astronaut Hall of Fame in 2006.

During his tenure as NASA administrator, Major General Bolden led the agency in developing innovative technology crucial to the advancement of space travel, such as the Space Launch System rocket and Orion spacecraft that will carry astronauts to deep space destinations.

Under his leadership, the agency's support of commercial space transportation systems for reaching low-Earth orbit has enabled successful commercial cargo resupply of the International Space Station. He also oversaw a variety of dynamic science activities at NASA, including the unprecedented landing of the Curiosity rover on Mars, the launch of a spacecraft to Jupiter and continued progress toward the 2018 launch of the James Webb Space Telescope — the successor to the Hubble Space Telescope.

Lucy Shelton Caswell

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Countless scholars at Ohio State and beyond owe a debt of gratitude to Lucy Shelton Caswell, a celebrated authority on cartoon art and the visionary behind the creation of the Billy Ireland Cartoon Library & Museum — the foremost collection of cartoon and comics materials in the world. Thanks to her efforts, Ohio State is home to one of the first academic libraries to recognize the importance of collecting and cataloging cartoon art for preservation and research.

Professor Emerita Caswell earned her undergraduate degree in history and German language and literature at Austin College before attending the University of Michigan, where she completed her graduate studies in library science. In 1970, she began her 40-year career at Ohio State as an instructor and head of the Journalism Library. Four years later, Ohio State alumnus Milton Caniff, creator of the beloved "Terry and the Pirates" and "Steve Canyon" adventure comic series, donated an extensive trove of memorabilia and manuscripts to the university.

As curator of the Milton Caniff Collection, Professor Emerita Caswell embarked on a considerable journey, which began in 1977, to survey, archive and preserve the prolific collection — the seed from which the Billy Ireland Cartoon Library & Museum would grow. A champion of cartoon art as a serious academic pursuit, Professor Emerita Caswell leveraged the university's newfound asset to cultivate relationships with artists and organizations across the nation and encourage them to contribute artwork and papers to the archive.

In 1997, Professor Emerita Caswell negotiated the transfer of 75 tons of comic strip clippings from the San Francisco Academy of Comic Art, rescued from the bound newspaper volumes that libraries across the country had discarded in favor of microfilm.

Under her leadership, donations increased and the collection outgrew multiple storage facilities. In 2013, after eight years of fundraising and construction, the new, state-of-the-art Billy Ireland Cartoon Museum & Library opened in Sullivant Hall. Fulfilling Professor Emerita Caswell's vision, the library has become an internationally renowned center for research and exhibitions, and hundreds of donors have contributed to the collection, which includes more than 300,000 cartoons and 2.5 million comic strip clippings and newspaper pages.

Richard S. (Dick) Stoddard

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

After earning his undergraduate degree from Ohio State in 1966, and dedicating nearly four decades of loyal service to his alma mater, Dick Stoddard has become the epitome of a Buckeye for life. His collaborative spirit and selfless commitment to Ohio State extended well beyond his formal responsibilities at the university as he united with higher education leaders and elected officials to advance the goals of Buckeyes near and far.

An ROTC graduate, Mr. Stoddard was commissioned to the U.S. Army as a second lieutenant. After fulfilling his military duties, he returned to Ohio State to pursue graduate studies in the Department of Political Science. It was there that he took on professional roles at the university, first as a graduate administrative associate and then, in 1978, as director of undergraduate studies and department administrator.

Four years later, he was recruited as special assistant to the vice president of the newly created Office of Research. He is credited with helping grow that office during its formative years. He became an expert in regulatory issues and federal funding for research, which led to another promotion in 1995, this time to special assistant to the president and director of federal relations.

Mr. Stoddard became a strong advocate for Ohio State's legislative priorities. He represented the university as a member of prominent national higher education organizations, such as the Association of Public and Land-grant Universities and the Association of American Universities. Throughout multiple administrations, Mr. Stoddard remained a constant and reliable presence — the face of Ohio State in Washington.

To better address the needs of Ohio's congressional delegation, he assisted in opening a satellite office in the nation's capital, which has been hailed as "one of the best damn lobbying operations in the land." He also established the Big Ten Federal Relations Council, further encouraging members of the Big Ten to stand together on academic issues.

Mr. Stoddard most recently served as vice president of government affairs and special assistant to the president before his retirement from Ohio State in the fall of 2015. A highly respected voice in national academic circles, Mr. Stoddard currently volunteers as chair of the Big Ten Federal Relations Council and as the university's delegate on the board of directors of the Midwestern Universities Consortium for International Activities.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square — a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.

Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.

So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.

Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
