POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time.

Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta.

I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.

In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.

I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect.

And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,

President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.

Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes.
CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.

So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.

Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-lu-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

His beats included Columbus City Hall, Franklin County government, the Ohio General Assembly, and local and state political campaigns.

In 1985, Mr. Curtin became the newspaper's chief political writer and director of the Dispatch Poll. In October 1994, he was named executive managing editor. He was promoted to editor in December 1995 and associate publisher in July 1998.

Mr. Curtin currently serves on the boards of the Greater Columbus Chamber of Commerce, Mt. Carmel Health System, YMCA of Central Ohio, the Columbus Metropolitan Library Foundation, and the Catholic Foundation of the Columbus Diocese.

David J. Gross

Doctor of Science

Nobel laureate David J. Gross is the Frederick W. Gluck Professor of Theoretical Physics and director of the Kavli Institute for Theoretical Physics at the University of California-Santa Barbara.

A native of Washington, D.C., he received his bachelor's and master's degrees from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem and his doctorate in physics from the University of California-Berkeley, followed by a fellowship at Harvard. He began his teaching career at Princeton University in 1969 and was named professor of physics in 1972, then Eugene Higgins Professor of Physics in 1986 and Thomas Jones Professor of Mathematical Physics in 1995. He joined the faculty of the University of California-Santa Barbara in 1997, where he remains today.

In 1973, Professor Gross, working with his graduate student, Frank Wilczek, at Princeton, discovered asymptotic freedom, which holds that the closer quarks are to each other, the less the strong interaction, or color charge, is between them, and they behave almost as free particles. Asymptotic freedom, independently discovered by David Politzer, was important for the development of quantum chromodynamics. Along with Wilczek and Politzer, Professor Gross was awarded the 2004 Nobel Prize in Physics.

He has made seminal contributions to the theory of superstrings, taking a critical role in the explosive development of string theory in the 1980s, bringing gravity into the quantum framework. With collaborators, he originated the "heterotic string theory," the prime candidate for a unified theory on all the forces of nature. He continues to do research in this field at the Kavli Institute, the world center of string theory.

In addition to the Nobel Prize, Professor Gross has received numerous awards for his work, including the J.J. Sakurai Prize of the National Academy of Sciences, a MacArthur Foundation Fellowship, the Dirac Medal, Stockholm University's Oscar Klein Medal, the Harvey Prize of the Technion, the European Physical Society Prize in Elementary Particle Physics, and the Grande Medaille D'Or of the French Academy of Science.

He is a fellow of the American Physical Society, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, the American Association for the Advancement of Sciences, and the Indian Academy of Science, and a member of the National Academy of Sciences and the American Philosophical Society.

Orlando L. Taylor

Doctor of Higher Education

Orlando L. Taylor is vice provost for research, dean of the Graduate School, and professor of communications at Howard University in Washington, D.C.

Dr. Taylor holds a bachelor's degree from Hampton University, a master's degree from Indiana University, and a doctorate from the University of Michigan. He joined Howard University's faculty in 1973 as a graduate professor and department chair in Communication Arts and Sciences/Communication Sciences and Disorders. He has since served as Howard's School of Communications' dean from 1985 to 1993; as executive assistant to the president in 1994; and as interim vice president for academic affairs from 1994 to 1995. He became dean of the Graduate School in 1993 and vice provost for research in 2003.

As dean, he has played a significant role in assuring Howard's continued national leadership in graduate education. Howard produces more African American Ph.D. recipients than any other research university in the nation, and Dr. Taylor has been a vigorous advocate and spokesperson on topics and issues relating to access and equity in higher education.

He has raised several million dollars in research, training, and program development grants from federal and private sources during his tenure at Howard. Currently, he serves as principal investigator on major grants from the National Science Foundation to increase the production of minority Ph.D. recipients in science, technology, mathematics, and engineering (STEM) and in the social, behavioral, and economic sciences; as well as from the U.S. Department of Education to develop collaborative academic and research programs between universities in Brazil and in four European Union countries with those in the United States.

Dr. Taylor is currently or has served previously as a member of numerous national boards, including the board of directors of the Council of Graduate Schools, for which he served as board chair in 2001. He is also a past president of the Northeastern Association of Graduate Schools, the National Communication Association, and the Council of Social Science Associations. He is a former member of the Advisory Committee of the Directorate for Education and Human Resources of the National Science Foundation and of an advisory council at the National Institutes of Health. He is a current member of the board of trustees of the University Corporation for Atmospheric Research and the Oak Ridge Associated Universities and chairs the National Advisory Board for the Center for the Integration of Research, Teaching, and Learning, a major NSF-funded center at the University of Wisconsin.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Ted A. Beattie

Distinguished Service Award

Ted A. Beattie has been president and chief executive officer of Chicago's John G. Shedd Aquarium since 1994. Shedd is the highest-attended aquarium of its kind in the nation with more than two million visitors each year.

Born in Salem, Ohio, Mr. Beattie earned his bachelor's degree in journalism and his master's degree in public relations at The Ohio State University. He started his zoo and aquarium career as the Cincinnati Zoo's first marketing and development director in 1981, followed by positions as associate director of Chicago's Brookfield Zoo, executive director of the Knoxville Zoological Gardens, and director and CEO of the Fort Worth Zoological Park.

At the Shedd Aquarium, he is responsible for the overall management of the aquarium and its operating divisions, including programs, research, development, finance, and operations. Under his leadership, the aquarium has deepened its commitment to education while embarking on one of its largest-ever expansion projects—a new wing that houses the $45 million Wild Reef, featuring one of the largest and most diverse shark exhibits in North America.

Appointed by President George W. Bush to the 16-member U.S. Commission on Ocean Policy, he has helped craft recommendations on a range of issues, from stewardship of marine resources and pollution prevention to enhancing marine science, commerce, and transportation. On a national level, Mr. Beattie has been an active member of the American Zoo and Aquarium Association, having served as president of the 6,000-member professional organization.

Mr. Beattie's ties to his alma mater have remained strong. As a past chair of the Alumni Association Board of Directors, he guided the association through the early stages of an organizational transition. He served on the Provost's External Advisory Board on Teaching and the advisory board for the School of Communication. In 2002, Mr. Beattie played an integral role in establishing a strategic communications program within the School of Communication. In addition, he serves on the Chicago Major Gifts Committee.

As a member of the "Affirm Thy Friendship Campaign" National Major Gift Committee, Mr. Beattie played a leading role in strengthening partnerships among Chicago-area alumni and friends of Ohio State, opening the Shedd Aquarium on occasion for campaign events.

He is the recipient of The Ohio State University's School of Communication's Distinguished Alumni Award and the American Zoo Association's Marlin Perkins Award for Lifetime Achievement and Professional Excellence, and he was named Chicago's Chief Executive Officer of the Year in 2006.

Judith E. Tuckerman

Distinguished Service Award

Judith E. Tuckerman is a leader in the Columbus philanthropic community and a longtime supporter of The Ohio State University.

A 1964 graduate of Ohio State with a bachelor of science in education, Mrs. Tuckerman has played a leading role in strengthening her university, in particular the Wexner Center for the Arts and the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute. She has served on the Wexner Center Donor Circles Council since its 1990 inception, acting as chair since 1992, and her efforts have resulted in a more than 400% increase in membership and more than $5 million in gifts through the Donor Circles program alone.

She continues to be an invaluable member of the Wexner Center's annual Anniversary Gala planning committee, and she and her family have established the Tuckerman Family Endowment for Children's Programs, which sustains and enhances the center's ongoing educational programs.

Mrs. Tuckerman has served as a trustee for the James Foundation Board since 2002, actively assisting in volunteer recruitment and fund-raising strategies. Her advocacy and support were instrumental in launching the James Fund for Life, the first effort by the community to support the James on an annual basis. She and her husband, Steve, have co-chaired the hospital's very successful annual Celebration for Life fund-raising event since its inception. The Tuckermans have also created the Tuckerman Family Breast Cancer Research Endowment to support and advance breast cancer research at the James, and, in 2002, they served as honorary chairs of Stefanie's Champions, benefiting the Stefanie Spielman Fund for Breast Cancer Research. Together they chair the James Cancer Hospital campaign, and they have agreed to co-chair the upcoming Ohio State University Medical Center's "Power to Change Lives" campaign.

Equally dedicated to the greater Columbus community, Mrs. Tuckerman has given her time and expertise to the YWCA, Race for the Cure, the Columbus Montessori Education Center, the Columbus Jewish Federation, the Columbus Coalition Against Family Violence, and the American Cancer Society, among others.

She is the recipient of Ohio State's Gerlach Award for her volunteer service and was named one of the YWCA's Women of Achievement in 2003 and Outstanding Volunteer Fundraiser by the Central Ohio chapter of the Association of Fundraising Professionals in 2004.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

For more than a century, graduating seniors have joined together to bestow a Class Gift upon the university. This tradition began in 1891 when a group of students planted five elm trees on the Oval the evening before graduation.

Since then, Class Gifts have touched the lives of hundreds of thousands of Ohio State students, alumni, and friends. From the Orton Hall chimes to “The Long Walk” on the Oval, Class Gifts have shaped our campus experience, helping to create the Ohio State we all know and cherish today.

Class Gifts are also shaping the Ohio State of tomorrow. The 2007 Class Gift is continuing this rich tradition. As the Class of 2007 collectively prepares to cross the stage as students and leave as graduates, they are leaving a legacy that will celebrate this special day and benefit future generations of Ohio State students for years to come.

They are leaving an indelible mark on the university—literally. Across campus, the new Ohio Union is being built. The 2007 Class Gift is a 16-foot university seal that will be embedded in the floor of the Great Hall in the new Ohio Union.

Continuing in the tradition of the first Ohio Union, the new Ohio Union will open in 2010 and serve as a hub for students to gather, participate in activities, and be part of a community. It will also be a place where alumni and friends can return to reminisce about their campus experience. The beautiful seal will serve as a focal point, reminding past, present, and future Buckeyes of the Class of 2007’s generosity.

As we continue to build on the past to build for the future, graduates who wish to make their 2007 Class Gift of $20.07 may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the Class of 2007 and thanks them for making a difference at Ohio State!

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:
