POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance

of the life you began freshman year
or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
*Up above the world so high, like a diamond
in the sky*. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines
of knowledge. We all owe our souls
to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. *Lucky, lucky,

lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun*.
*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years
for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage

it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us,
precious difference, the grand multiplicity
of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights

around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves
of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people

sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.
When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
*Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place
of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet*

from crying. We won't forget you.
Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat,

and winter's cold, The seasons pass,
the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship.
O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music
to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Thomas J. Moyer

Thomas J. Moyer has served as chief justice of the Supreme Court of Ohio since 1987.

The Ohio native holds a bachelor of arts degree in political science and a juris doctor degree from The Ohio State University. Prior to his election as chief justice, he served for eight years as a judge of the Tenth District Court of Appeals in Franklin County, as executive assistant to Ohio Gov. James A. Rhodes for four years, and as a private practice lawyer for eight years.

Chief Justice Moyer has become a leader in providing citizens with improved access to the courts through alternative dispute resolution and computer technology. He seeks to ensure equal access to the courts through the development of a certification process for interpreters for non-English speakers and the hearing-impaired.

He is working with leaders of the judiciary and the General Assembly to develop family courts as a comprehensive approach to resolving criminal and civil issues confronting families, and he oversaw revisions to Ohio felony, misdemeanor, or, traffic, and juvenile sentencing laws that have been adopted by the General Assembly.

Chief Justice Moyer continues to work with lawyers and judges in other countries as they develop independent judiciaries. After Ukraine gained its independence, he led efforts to introduce that country to the importance of the rule of law and continues to host Ukrainian delegations on a regular basis. He has also counseled judicial leaders from China, Korea, Argentina, and Chile.

He currently serves as vice chair of the Advanced Science and Technology Adjudication Resource Center, a national consortium to prepare judges for managing the resolution of disputes on complex science issues. He chairs the Task Force on Politics and Judicial Selection for the Conference of Chief Justices and co-chairs its Committee on Emergency Preparedness in the Courts. In addition, he is a past chair of The Ohio State University Alumni Association board of directors.

In 1987, at Ohio State's 300th Commencement, he was recognized as one of 40 outstanding university alumni, and, in 1993, Ohio State awarded him an honorary Doctor of Laws degree.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

George A. Olah

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Nobel laureate George A. Olah is the Donald P. and Katherine B. Loker Chair in Organic Chemistry and Distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Engineering at the University of Southern California.

A native of Hungary, Professor Olah joined the University of Southern California faculty in 1977 as professor of chemistry and scientific director of the university's Hydrocarbon Research Institute. Prior to this, he was a research scientist at Dow Chemical Company from 1957 to 1964 and professor of chemistry at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland from 1965 to 1977.

Professor Olah received the Nobel Prize in Chemistry in 1994 for his pioneering studies of carbocations and their reactions in superacids. His work has revolutionized the understanding of organic chemistry, leading to new discoveries, new fields of research, and countless applications. His recent research focuses on converting carbon dioxide into methanol that can be used as a renewable and non-polluting energy source, fuel, and chemical raw material, mitigating the need for fossil fuels and rendering them environmentally benign.

He has served as a visiting professor at numerous universities worldwide, including The Ohio State University; the universities of Heidelberg, Munich, Strasbourg, London, Paris, and Dubna (Russia); the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology; the Chinese Academy of Sciences in Shanghai; and Peking University. He is the author of more than 1,400 published scientific papers and 20 books and holds 120 patents.

His many honors, in addition to the Nobel Prize, include membership in the National Academy of Sciences; the American Academy of Arts and Sciences; and the European Academy of Arts, Sciences and Humanities, as well as foreign membership in several international learned academies. In 1996, the American Chemical Society renamed its annual Award in Petroleum Chemistry as the "George A. Olah Award in Hydrocarbon or Petroleum Chemistry."

He is the recipient of Ohio State's 1993 William Lloyd Evans Award.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

John M. Shepherd

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

John M. Shepherd is the former president and CEO of The Shepherd Chemical Company and The Shepherd Color Company in Cincinnati and continues to serve as secretary to both companies. He served on the Cincinnati Financial Corporation's board of directors from 2001 to 2007.

A two-time graduate of The Ohio State University with a 1958 bachelor's degree in ceramic engineering and a 1959 master's in business administration, Mr. Shepherd has remained close to his alma mater over the past half century.

His contributions to the university are wide-ranging, thoughtful, and generous. He is the longest-serving member of the Fisher College's Dean's Advisory Council, where his participation and counsel continue to be valued. He co-chaired the college's John K. Pfahl Hall campaign adding his own support to the building project.

His Shepherd Engineering Scholarship has enabled a number of Cincinnati public high school graduates to study engineering at Ohio State. He facilitated a collaboration between Ohio State's College of Engineering and Walnut Hills High School in Cincinnati, which resulted in the creation of an "Introduction to Engineering" course at Walnut Hills, modeled after Ohio State's introductory course required of incoming engineering students. As a result, many Walnut Hills graduates have chosen to continue their engineering education at Ohio State. In addition, the John M. Shepherd Athletic Scholarship Fund supplements grants-in-aid for undergraduates on the men's varsity basketball team.

He has served on The Ohio State University Foundation Board and is a former member of the National Campaign Executive Committee and the Orton Chair Committee for the College of Engineering. Currently he is co-chair of the National Major Gift Committee for the Cincinnati area.

In recognition of his service to Ohio State, Mr. Shepherd received a Meritorious Service Award in 1992 from the College of Engineering and, in 2000, the university's John B. Gerlach Sr. Development Volunteer Award.

John L. Warner and Christine Warner Powell

Through their generosity and vision, Christine Warner Powell and her late husband John L. Warner have enhanced The Ohio State University at Newark by creating a nurturing environment that enriches the lives of students, faculty, staff, and community members.

John Warner was an active member of the Newark Campus Development Fund, created to support Ohio State's Newark campus and the Central Ohio Technical College. In this capacity, he was instrumental in developing a master plan that helped guide campus growth from a single building 50 years ago to a beautiful campus with nine buildings today. At his death, his wife assumed his role on the board, continuing his legacy of dedicated service.

The couple's lead gift sparked the plans for the John L. and Christine Warner Library and Student Center, now the dynamic hub of the Newark campus. The Warner Center has had a profound impact on student life, with areas for studying and socializing and providing a home away from home for the campus's commuter students.

In addition to the Warners' initial support of the new building, Christine ensured, following her husband's death, that a series of trusts would allow the building to be completed and maintained into the future.

A graduate of Denison University and a veteran of the U.S. Navy, John Warner was retired from the Dawson-Coleman-Wallace Insurance Agency and was a past president of the Licking County Independent Insurance Agents. His community service included membership on the boards of Park National Bank, The Park National Corporation, Par Excellence

School, Welsh Hills School, and Shepherd Hill Hospital. Both he and Christine served on the governing committee of the Licking County Foundation.

Christine Warner Powell also attended Denison University. She currently serves as a trustee for the Newark Campus Development Fund and is president of the Warner Lindorf Family Foundation. As a longtime member of P.E.O. International, Philanthropic Educational Organization, she continues to promote educational opportunities for women.

Christine Warner Powell and her late husband's vision of a welcoming place where Newark area students could find a quiet place to study and become involved in campus life has become a physical reality that will long enhance the statewide educational mission of The Ohio State University.

The Ohio State University 2009 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Now, the Class of 2009 has an opportunity to leave a legacy of its own and participate in Ohio State's unique history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received while leaving an indelible mark on their alma mater, to be enjoyed by students for years to come.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.09 (or other amount) as part of the 2009 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2009 and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Today marks your official launch. My expectations for you are boundless, just as they are for Ohio State. After all, you are now a graduate of one of the finest universities in the world. I hope that makes you feel both proud and somewhat pressured.

You might start by asking yourself two questions, as most new graduates who are contemplating a move will do: What should I keep? What should I give away? Although I am no longer young enough to know everything, I do know enough to offer this advice. Some things to keep: An open mind, as challenged by your professors. The memory of Orton Hall's chimes, because that is tradition. The sound of jackhammers at the Ohio Union and Thompson Library, because that is progress. Keep close the friend you made during orientation, when you were both excited and overwhelmed. Lock the best of this place in your heart and stow it away for the times you will need sustenance. Set out tomorrow morning, pick up just the right wind, and launch the next phase of your life.

You will have to jettison some things. Keep away from people who diminish your dreams, who deride your ambitions. Give up your doubts, and that little voice inside your head that says, "You can't." Ohio State says you can.

Even as you may struggle to make ends meet, you have so much to give away. Give your time and talent to a cause you believe in. Give your hope to make a better world, because you come from a great public university that believes in doing the world's good. Give your courage when it is not convenient, your integrity now that it is most needed, your honesty in all things large and small. Give your compassion, because the world often seems to be running short. Give it your best shot, every day.

Like me, you will look to Ohio State as a harbor of high aspirations. When you tell people that you are an Ohio State graduate, you will be telling them our story, singing our song. You will represent the great promise of this land-grant institution to make a difference in others' lives. You will know, firsthand, that Ohio State changes lives.

Go where your calling takes you, along a route that might meander. Go beyond the routine, the expected, and the easy. Like this university, you are capable of greatness. As you prepare to cast off, I hope that Ohio State has lived up to all your expectations. Now it is your turn to live up to ours. And send me a postcard every now and then to let me know how you are doing.

O-H!

E. Gordon Gee
President

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencement derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—

a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD)	Gray
