POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.

In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.

I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect.

And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,

President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.

Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother

I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.

Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there,
Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass,

the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship,
O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Michael B. Coleman

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Michael B. Coleman is serving his third term as mayor of Columbus, Ohio. Since taking office in 2000, his focus has been to improve the quality of life for families in Columbus neighborhoods and to create jobs by continuing to improve Columbus' high quality of life.

The City of Columbus and The Ohio State University have joined forces on a number of projects over the last 11 years to improve safety and services in the University District—the city neighborhood closest to campus where thousands of students live. Those include the Moody/Hall Neighborhood Policing Center; 150 new streetlights; the Joint Patrol Project, in which an Ohio State University Police officer works in tandem with a Columbus Police officer to patrol the University District and campus; and university assistance in funding refuse collection in the University District.

Mr. Coleman has leveraged incentives to create and retain more than 65,000 jobs and bring more than $4.5 billion in private investment to Columbus throughout his tenure. Businesses have access to an educated workforce including graduates from Ohio State and 17 other regional colleges and universities. Columbus is centrally located to national markets and a growing transportation, distribution, and logistics hub.

Columbus is the 16th largest city in the country. Under Mayor Coleman's leadership, the city has been recognized and ranked among the best in the nation. RelocateAmerica calls Columbus one of the 10 best large cities and one of the 10 most affordable metro areas. It was recognized as the nation's 8th best place to live by CNN and Money magazine, which also declared Columbus as the nation's safest big city. Forbes Magazine has recognized Columbus as the top up-and-coming tech city and the top city in which to retire.

Columbus regularly makes top rankings as a hot destination for relocation of businesses and continues to earn top rankings for its stable housing market, affordability, and as a top city for African Americans, young professionals, and members of the GLBT community.

Mr. Coleman earned an undergraduate degree in political science from the University of Cincinnati in 1977 and a law degree from the University of Dayton in 1980. Prior to becoming mayor, he served as president of Columbus City Council from 1997 to 1999, and as council member from 1992 to 1999. He has been honored by numerous organizations, both locally and nationally, for his work on behalf of health care, the environment, economic development, after-school care, housing, and human rights.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Charles Henry Plumb

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC SERVICE

Lord Charles Henry Plumb is a British public servant and lifelong advocate for farmers and agriculture. He is an active member of the House of Lords, the European Union Sub-Committee Internal Market, and a partner and founding member of the European Union government affairs law firm Alber & Geiger.

Lord Plumb boasts a successful career in European politics in both the National Farmers Union and the Conservative Party, which ultimately led to his term as president of the European Parliament—the highest legislative body in the EU—from 1987–1989. He is the only Briton to hold this high post. During his 20-year tenure (1979–1999) in the European Parliament, he also served as Speaker for Agriculture and chair of the Committee for Agriculture and Rural Development. Additionally, he was president of the National Farmers Union, the International Federation of Agriculture Producers, and the Royal Agriculture Society of England, and chair of the International Policy Council on Agriculture, Food, and Trade.

Upon retirement from his long and distinguished political career, Lord Plumb founded the Henry Plumb Trust in 1999 to continue his advocacy for rural and farming communities around the world. The Henry Plumb Trust aids and promotes agricultural projects worldwide, including educational scholarships and research awards for organizations and individuals working in the agriculture industry.

Lord Plumb is a decorated public servant. His many honors and awards include the Great Cross of Merit of the Federal Republic of Germany and the Gold Medal for Distinguished Services to Agriculture by the Royal Agriculture Society of England. He was knighted by Her Majesty The Queen in 1973.

John J. Chester Sr.

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Jack Chester is senior partner in the Columbus law firm of Chester, Willcox & Saxbe LLP. A nationally respected litigator, Mr. Chester joined the family practice in 1948 after receiving his undergraduate degree from Amherst College (1942) and his law degree from Yale University (1948). He was a member of the Ohio House of Representatives from 1953 to 1958 and served as special counsel to the President of the United States in 1974.

He has long been a dedicated advocate for The Ohio State University and, in particular, its Moritz College of Law. As an active participant in the College of Law's National Council and the College of Arts and Sciences Advisory Committee, he has given invaluable advice and counsel to university leaders. As an adjunct professor, he has taught a popular class in pretrial litigation, now in its 10th year, in which he generously shares his substantial knowledge and experience concerning case and trial preparation.

Mr. Chester played a leading role in launching Moritz Law's Legislation Clinic as well as the college's Center for Interdisciplinary Law and Policy Studies. He helped to complete the college's Barrister Club project, and he has personally and through his firm supported a number of university-wide programs, including the College of Humanities, the Athletics Department, and WOSU.

He is the recipient of the Columbus Bar Association's Professionalism Award and the Ohio State Bar Foundation Honorary Life Fellowship Award, and he has been named a Fellow in the American College of Trial Lawyers.

Virginia I. Zirkle

Virginia Zirkle is known in Ohio's Putnam County as an "Ohio State legend," a title that befits her six decades of service to her alma mater.

A 1945 graduate of Ohio State, Professor Zirkle worked briefly as a teacher before joining the Putnam County Ohio State Extension as a home economist in 1947, where she remained until her 1988 retirement. In 1978, she attained the rank of full professor, one of the first so named without having a doctoral degree. Fiercely proud of Ohio State's land-grant mission, she encouraged countless first-generation college students to pursue higher education at Ohio State and its Lima campus. She played a leading role in establishing the Putnam County Educational Service Center, where students can enroll in Ohio State classes throughout the year before attending Ohio State Lima or the Columbus campus.

Professor Zirkle backed up her strong belief in the university with her generous support for student scholarships and the new Nationwide and Ohio Farm Bureau 4-H Center on the Columbus campus. She was a member of the Putnam County Alumni Club since 1945, becoming its permanent secretary in 1975, and was an active committee member of the College of Home Economics and Human Ecology. Despite her retirement of more than 20 years, she remained an engaged volunteer for her university and her community until her death in January 2010.

The Ohio State University 2010 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Now, the Class of 2010 has an opportunity to leave a unique legacy and participate in Ohio State's history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received while leaving an indelible environmentally sustainable mark on their alma mater. The Cunz Hall Rain Garden will be enjoyed by students for years to come.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.10 (or other amount) as part of the 2010 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2010, and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Graduates:

Today is a day for celebration. After countless hours of studying, days of anticipation, and years of dedication, you are leaping into the next stage of your life. Humor me in believing that it was not too long ago when I was in your shoes. I remember those feelings very well: nostalgia for the past, anxiety for the present, and excitement for the opportunities that await.

You are entering a world that needs you and the skills and knowledge you gained at Ohio State. Feeling nervous? Embrace that feeling, knowing that you may experience struggles in times to come but reminding yourself that you have faced and overcome many struggles as a college student. Although you may seek immediate answers and solid solutions, instead relish the large victory that you have just won for yourself. Your time at Ohio State and the diploma you receive today will always be yours. And you will be the architect of your future. Set your standards just out of reach, and yours will be a story worth telling.

Your generation has a wonderful ability to collaborate, to think outside the box, and land on your feet in an unexpected place. Think of today as a stepping-stone. I urge you to use it to explore how you can make this state, this nation, and our world a better place. As a graduate of The Ohio State University, you are uniquely prepared to effect change. I expect you to lead the way. And I hope you will drop me a postcard to tell me how you are doing.

O-H!

E. Gordon Gee
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

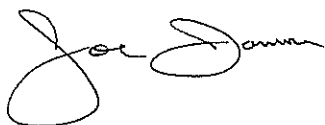

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of more than 465,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

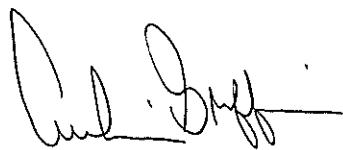

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected virtually: ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities, including alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and alumni societies connected with your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

Joseph F. Damore

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Summer Quarter 2010, as of 2:00 p.m., August 23, 2010, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, Student Academic Services Building, 281 West Lane Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210-1132.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD) .....	Gray
(Others).....	Black
College of Arts and Sciences
BA .....	White
BA Journalism.....	Crimson
BAE, BFA .....	Brown
BM, BME .....	Pink
BS, BS Design .....	White
