THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

SUMMER COMMENCEMENT • AUGUST 12, 2012

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store,

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying, Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you, You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Terry Stewart

DOCTOR OF BUSINESS

erry Stewart is president and CEO of the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum in Cleveland, Ohio. Widely respected for his leadership in business, Mr. Stewart joined the Rock Hall in 1999 and has been recognized for bringing national prominence to the organization. With its mission to educate visitors, avid music fans, and scholars from around the world, the Rock Hall has welcomed more than eight million people from all 50 states and 100 countries since opening in 1995.

Born in Mobile, Alabama, Mr. Stewart graduated from Rutgers, The State University of New Jersey, in 1969, where he received a BS in engineering and a BA in education. By 1974, he had gone on to earn his MBA in finance and JD from Cornell University. For the next 15 years, Mr. Stewart built an impressive resume of leadership roles in industries ranging from finance to business development to engineering and, finally, to media. In 1989, he joined Marvel Entertainment Group, best known for its publication of comic books, where he served as president and chief operating officer and later as vice chair.

A prominent leader in music and culture, Mr. Stewart serves as a board member of the Rhythm and Blues Foundation in Philadelphia, an advisor for the annual Summer Stage Concert Series in Central Park, and a member of the advisory committee for the prospective new National Museum of Hip-Hop. He also serves on the nominating committee for the Alabama Music Hall of Fame and is a member of the Abu Dhabi Investment House Entertainment Advisory Board in Abu Dhabi. Locally, he serves on the boards for the Cleveland Film Commission, Positively Cleveland: the Cleveland Convention and Visitor's Bureau, and the Diversity Center of Northeast Ohio.

In 2008, Mr. Stewart was named the 48th Annual Business Executive of the Year by the Sales and Marketing Executives Association of Cleveland. He also was named a "Person Who Matters" by Crain's Cleveland Business and one of "The Power 100" by Inside Business magazine in 2010. His leadership has helped the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum become one of the country's leading organizations for explaining significant shifts in attitudes toward culture, race, and gender across all aspects of American life.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Trella H. Romine

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

rella Romine of Caledonia, Ohio, is a dedicated advocate of The Ohio State University and her community. She is well known in her native Marion County for bringing passion to her work as a conservationist, a historian, and a volunteer.

Mrs. Romine's role in the enhancement and preservation of Marion has been both exceptional and enduring. A graduate of Harding High School in 1933, she owned and operated Hemmerly's Flowers for 30 years. Since her retirement in 1982, she has dedicated her endeavors to preserving the county's printed history as chair of the Publications Committee at the Marion County Historical Society. She also established the Rinker/Howser Resource Center at Heritage Hall, the home of the society. Additionally, she helped initiate the creation of the Marion County Parks District and donated 12 acres of her home site along the Whestone River, the Terradise Nature Preserve, to the parks.

Mrs. Romine has made an indelible mark on The Ohio State University at Marion. She was instrumental in creating the Larry Yoder Prairie Nature Preserve, an 11-acre outdoor learning laboratory used to teach students about horticulture and the environment. In addition to volunteering there, she helped establish the Marion Campus Prairie Nature Education Center Endowment to maintain the preserve. Her support has led to vital research and helped the university preserve land surrounding the Marion campus. In 2010, she established the Trella Hemmerly Romine/Howard W. Howser Endowed Scholarship Fund to further the education of students studying science at Ohio State.

In recognition of her leadership and volunteer activities, Mrs. Romine has received numerous awards, including the Tiffin Award of the Ohio Historical Society and the 2011 Presidential Award for Volunteerism for more than 4,000 hours volunteering at the Marion County Historical Society. Additionally, she served as a member of the board of trustees of the Ohio Association of Historical Societies and Museums for 10 years, including four years as president.

Mrs. Romine has written five books on local and family history and recently published her autobiography, My Not So Ordinary Life.

Stephen A. Sterrett

tephen A. Sterrett's distinguished career at The Ohio State University spans more than three decades. He has served the university in a wide variety of administrative roles and led many essential communications and community outreach projects before retiring in 2010.

A graduate of Heidelberg University in Tiffin, Ohio, Mr. Sterrett joined Ohio State in 1978 as editor of the faculty and staff newspaper, onCampus. Under his leadership, the newspaper received national recognition in 1981 and 1982 from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education. In 1982, Mr. Sterrett moved from onCampus to serve as a news editor in University Communications, where he was named director of news services two years later.

In 1995, Mr. Sterrett spearheaded the community relations component of the Campus Partners for Community Urban Redevelopment. In partnership with the City of Columbus, the University District, and Ohio State, the project aimed to initiate quality-of-life improvements in the neighborhoods surrounding Ohio State's Columbus campus. Mr. Sterrett's contributions not only helped strengthen the partnership between the university and the City of Columbus, but also earned national recognition for the Campus Partners organization.

Shortly before retiring, Mr. Sterrett helped create the Weinland Park Collaborative, a partnership of more than a dozen agencies and institutions working to improve the Weinland Park community adjacent to campus. This project has shown successful results, thanks in large part to his continued leadership.

Mr. Sterrett has received numerous awards for his service, including the 2001 Citizen Crime Stopper of the Year award, the University Community Business Association's Miracle Award, the Gold Medal Award for Public Information Programs, and an award from the University Community Association for outstanding service to the University District neighborhoods. In addition, he was recognized by Heidelberg University in 2010 as an outstanding alumnus.

Alec Wightman

lec Wightman is a partner in the Columbus office of the national law firm Baker and Hostetler. His practice covers a wide range of business and business-related areas, with substantial experience in the health care industry. He served as executive partner at Baker and Hostetler from 2004 to 2008, and previously served as legal services partner for more than 10 years.

Mr. Wightman has earned a place in The Best Lawyers in America annually since 1997. He received his BA from Duke University in 1972, and his JD from The Ohio State University in 1975.

He continually gives back to his alma mater through his time, support, and leadership. Through his service on the National Council of the Michael E. Moritz College of Law Alumni Society and the college's campaign committees, he has helped the college enhance its educational programs, create student scholarships, and establish endowed faculty positions. Most notably, he has supported the development of two programs instrumental to teaching and outreach: Mentoring and More @ Moritz, which fosters interaction between students and alumni, and the Business Transaction clinic, which enriches the business law program. Mr. Wightman also co-chaired the committee that financed development of the college's "Barrister Club."

Mr. Wightman has been deeply involved in the success of the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute. As a member of the James foundation board since 1990, he has helped guide the hospital through substantial periods of growth. During his 22-year tenure on the board, he has been a driving force behind successful fundraising, including the board chair during a capital campaign that raised more than $56 million for cancer genetics research. Mr. Wightman also has been a member of the operating board of the James since 2010.

In addition to his record of service at Ohio State, Mr. Wightman serves on the board of trustees of Otterbein University in Westerville, Ohio, and the board of trustees of Cleveland Rock and Roll, Inc., which operates the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Museum.

Jon R. Woods

r. Jon Woods of Columbus is the longest-serving full-time director of The Ohio State University Marching Band and an outstanding teacher and mentor in the School of Music. Before his retirement this year, Dr. Woods served the Ohio State community for more than 38 years, beginning as associate director of the band in 1974, and serving as band director for more than 25 years.

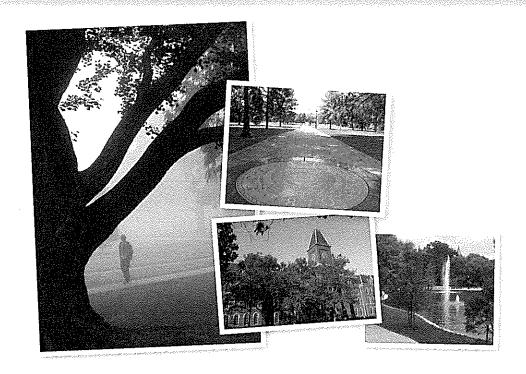

Dr. Woods helped set the standard for college bands across the country, and his leadership will leave a strong legacy of innovation and perfection, both on and off the field. As an expert on technique and show design, Dr. Woods earned a reputation for memorable halftime productions. Under his direction, the band was awarded the prestigious Sudler Trophy as the outstanding college band in the country, and has been invited four times to Washington, D.C., to march in presidential inaugural parades—a true testament to Dr. Woods' vision. In addition to directing concerts within the School of Music and beyond, he is well known for adopting new technology, such as digitally charting band formations to enhance the visual elements of his shows.

During his tenure, Dr. Woods earned broad recognition. He was honored with a Lifetime Achievement Award in 2011 by the College Band Directors Association. In 2004, the Ohio State College of Arts and Sciences awarded him the Endowed Chair for the Director of Marching and Athletic Bands, the School of Music's first endowed chair. He received a National Service Award in 2008 from the Kappa Kappa Psi national office, and the Phi Beta Mu National Bandmasters Fraternity Hall of Fame Award in 2010. Most recently, he received the College of Arts and Sciences Outstanding Teaching Award, and he continues to be routinely called upon to judge band competitions around the country.

Dr. Woods earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana University of Pennsylvania, his master's degree from The Pennsylvania State University, and his doctorate from the University of Michigan.

The Ohio State University 2012 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

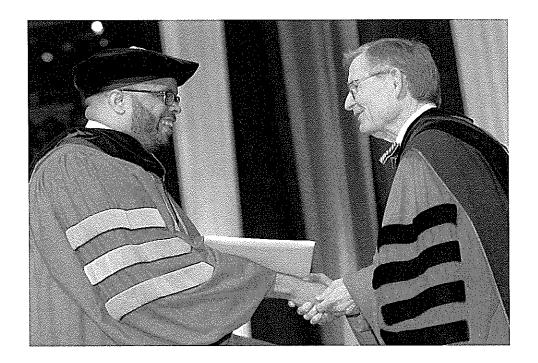

Members of the 2012 class have an opportunity to leave their unique legacy and participate in Ohio State's history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they have received by giving to the area that has meant the most to them like scholarships, colleges, offices, departments, programs, athletics, or student life.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.12 or other amount as part of the 2012 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2012, and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

ake a moment and look around you. Your friends, family, and fellow new alumni are together today to celebrate one of life's major milestones—your successful passage through four (or more!) rigorous years of higher education.

Believe it or not, I once also wore the robes of a young college graduate and I can assure you I still vividly remember the feeling of that enormous achievement—one that I hope prompts you to stand taller and walk a bit more proudly.

In the spirit of the occasion, I offer a few words of encouragement. The world today is full of unique and exciting opportunities for college graduates. Indeed, whatever discipline you have decided to pursue for yourself, endless possibilities are now open to you to create, to repair, to heal, to inform, and to inspire in previously unimaginable ways. My belief is that wherever there is a job to be done, no one is better suited for it than a graduate of Ohio State.

Personally, I am more confident than ever before in the knowledge and skills you have earned by making your way through this great university. The wisdom you have gained will make you valuable stewards of the community in which you belong, as well as the world that you inherit. More and more frequently, it is a world that calls for inspiration and imagination. But this—to my mind—means only that everyone should grow very accustomed to hearing, with increasing frequency: 0-H!

Sincerely,

E. Gordon Gee President

E. Miden Lee

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

n behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of nearly 500,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected and actively engaged in many ways, including virtually through ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities to connect and engage, including through alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and through alumni societies in your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY

GRADUATE SCHOOL

Advancing graduate education for over 100 years ongratulations to those of you receiving degrees this year from the Graduate School as we celebrate our 100th anniversary. Today, approximately 200 new PhDs, 548 master's, and 45 professional doctorate students will join the 160,000 alumni who have earned their graduate degrees since the Graduate School's founding in 1911. To put this in perspective, the Graduate School awarded just two PhDs and 52 master's degrees in its second year of existence. The growth from then to now is extraordinary and helps demonstrate why Ohio State and Ohio State graduate alumni are known all over the world.

Of the many recurring themes from the past 100 years, our national conversation has once again turned to the significant value that graduate degree holders add to any employment sector. This growing demand has a truly global reach. Employers need individuals who demonstrate those qualities that have always distinguished students pursuing graduate degrees—they are forward

During the Graduate School's centennial year, we are underscoring the value of graduate education through the following projects:

- Creating opportunities for new, professionally oriented master's programs that meet local, state, and national needs
- · Exploring new directions in doctoral education
- Hosting a summit at Ohio State focusing on career pathways for graduate students
- Celebrating the achievements of our current graduate students

Additionally, I am reaching out to Ohio State Graduate School alumni to see how they are using their degrees. If you are one of today's graduates, or alumnus or alumna, I am eager to hear your story and gain your perspective on our graduate activities at Ohio State. You can participate in these discussions on the Graduate School blog at go.osu.edu/GradSchoolblog. I welcome all of you to write me directly at osmer.1@osu.edu.

Sincerely,

This program is not an official graduation list,

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Summer Term 2012, as of 4:30 p.m., August 3, 2012, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, Student Academic Services Building, 281 West Lane Avenue, Columbus, 0H 43210-1132.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

he colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

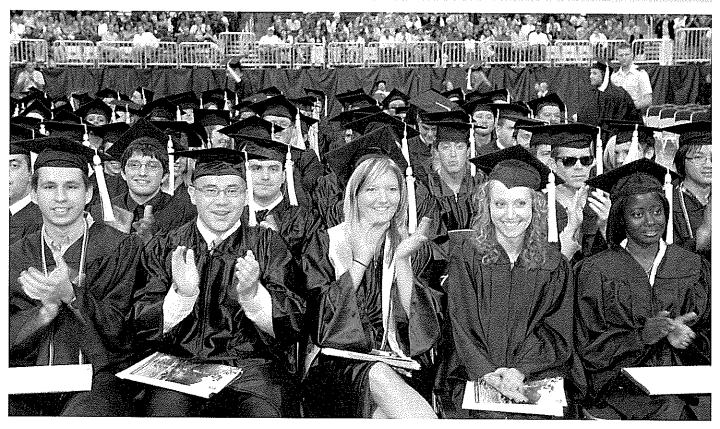

Cap and Tassel

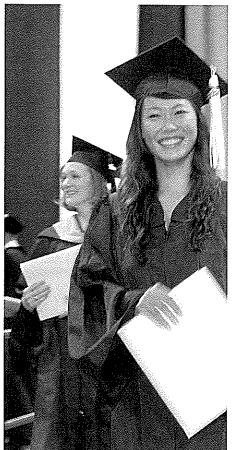

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD)	Grav

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the runof-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabyes and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater. Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
