POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony

Is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year
or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond
in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were.

Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King
(King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford,

"Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years
for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the Wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage

it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

*Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.*

Interim President Alutto looks forward to personally congratulating graduates on the stage for one hour immediately following the ceremony.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Ann Hamilton

Ann Hamilton is a visual artist internationally recognized for the sensory surrounds of her large-scale multi-media installations. Using time as process and material, her methods of making serve as an invocation of place, of collective voice, of communities past and of labor present. Noted for a dense accumulation of materials, her ephemeral environments create immersive experiences that poetically respond to the architectural presence and social history of their sites. Whether inhabiting a building four stories high or confined to the surface of a thimble, the genesis of Professor Hamilton's art extends outwards from the primary projections of the hand and mouth to space. Her attention to the uttering of a sound or the shaping of a word with the hand places language and text at the tactile and metaphoric center of her installations. To enter their liminality is to be drawn equally into the sensory and linguistic capacities of comprehension that construct our faculties of memory, reason, and imagination.

Since 2001, she has been a professor of art at The Ohio State University and was named a Distinguished University Professor in 2011. A native of Ohio, Professor Hamilton earned her undergraduate degree in textile design at the University of Kansas and her master of fine arts degree in sculpture at the Yale School of Art. From 1985 to 1991, she taught at the University of California in Santa Barbara. She moved to Columbus, Ohio, in 1992.

Professor Hamilton's work has been widely exhibited in the United States and abroad. Her major museum installations have spanned the globe, appearing in the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, The Museum of Modern Art, and the Dia Center for the Arts in New York City; Pulitzer Foundation for the Arts in St. Louis, Missouri; Contemporary Art Museum in Kumamoto, Japan; La Maison Rouge Fondation de Antoine Galbert in Paris, France; MASS MoCA in North Adams, Massachusetts; The Hirshhorn Museum and Sculpture Garden in Washington, DC; The Wanås Foundation in Knisslinge, Sweden; The Musée d'art Contemporain in Montreal, Quebec, Canada; and The Tate Gallery in Liverpool, England.

Professor Hamilton has received numerous honors in recognition of her visionary work. These accolades include the Heinz Award, MacArthur Fellowship, United States Artists Fellowship, NEA Visual Arts Fellowship, and the Guggenheim Memorial Fellowship. She also represented the United States at the 1991 San Paolo Biennial and the 1999 Venice Biennale. She was inducted into the American Academy of Arts and Sciences in 2009.

Ohio State's recognition of Professor Hamilton's work can be seen in her permanent installation, VERSE, in the William Oxley Thompson Memorial Library. Located in the Buckeye Reading Room, VERSE is a two-color cork floor laid as a field of words set in relief.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Ellen Beam Rudy

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Anationally recognized expert in nursing, Ellen Beam Rudy of Columbus has made groundbreaking and sustaining contributions to the science and practice of her field. Dr. Rudy is emeritus dean and professor at the University of Pittsburgh School of Nursing. Prior to that, she held the Edward J. and Louise Mellen Endowed Chair in Acute Care Nursing at Case Western Reserve University, where she also served as associate dean for research.

Under her leadership at the University of Pittsburgh from 1991 to 2001, research at the school intensified and led to a sixth-place ranking in National Institutes of Health research funding. After her retirement, Dr. Rudy was a consultant to promote faculty research for other schools and colleges, as well as visiting professor at The Ohio State University from 2002 to 2007.

Dr. Rudy is internationally known for her research in the redesign and evaluation of critical care environments that minimize technology while providing highly professional clinical assessments of patient needs. Results showed that environments focused on patients and families provide better outcomes at lower costs. She has authored dozens of papers in a prolific research career in which her work has been funded by the NIH as well as the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

Dr. Rudy also developed teaching programs and curricula that have been adopted by nursing colleges across the country. A staunch supporter of bedside care, she created Cameos for Caring, an acclaimed program to recognize outstanding nurses in greater Pittsburgh area hospitals. The program has been modeled and implemented in other university settings.

A fellow of the American Academy of Nursing, she has received numerous honors, including the 1987 Excellence in Nursing Research Award from the Ohio Nurses Association, the 1990 Outstanding Alumni of The Ohio State University College of Nursing, and a 2006 designation as a Living Legend by the American Academy of Nursing.

Dr. Rudy earned her bachelor's degree in nursing from Ohio State in 1958, her master's in nursing from the University of Maryland in 1977, and a PhD in nursing from Case Western Reserve in 1980.

Albert H. Soloway

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Albert Soloway of Columbus is a respected scholar, researcher, academic leader, and dean and professor emeritus at The Ohio State University. He is widely known for his contributions in the field of medicinal chemistry. His pioneering work for the treatment of malignant brain tumors, called boron neutron capture therapy (BNCT), led to the development of new boron drugs. Dr. Soloway identified, designed, synthesized, and evaluated these boron-containing pharmaceutical agents.

From 1977 to 1988, Dr. Soloway served as dean of the College of Pharmacy and professor of medicinal chemistry at Ohio State, where he was instrumental in establishing the post-baccalaureate pharmacy doctorate program, in developing the clinical pharmacy faculty track, and in proposing the BS in pharmaceutical sciences.

He returned to the faculty in 1988 until his retirement in 1998.

After serving in the U.S. Navy during World War II and being a Midshipman at the U.S. Naval Academy from 1945 to 1946, Dr. Soloway returned to Worcester Polytechnic Institute and earned his undergraduate degree in chemistry in 1948, and his doctorate in organic chemistry from the University of Rochester in 1951. He worked as a postdoctoral researcher at the Sloan-Kettering Institute for Cancer Research, a research chemist at Eastman Kodak, and a research associate at The Massachusetts General Hospital in the Department of Surgery of the Harvard Medical School. From 1966 to 1977, Dr. Soloway held a faculty appointment at Northeastern University, where he served as chair of the Department of Medicinal Chemistry and Pharmacology from 1971 to 1975 and dean of the College of Pharmacy and Allied Health Professions from 1975 to 1977.

Dr. Soloway is highly respected by colleagues in academia for his collaborative and multi-disciplinary approach. Throughout his 47-year career, Dr. Soloway has published more than 200 papers, reviews, books, and book chapters. In addition, he has collaborated with faculty in disciplines from chemistry to nuclear engineering to pathology to radiation oncology to pharmacology. In recognition of his outstanding achievements, Dr. Soloway was elected a Fellow of the Academy of Pharmaceutical Sciences and of the American Association for the Advancement of Sciences, both in 1981. Support for his research and his graduate and undergraduate students has been from funding by the National Institutes of Health, the Department of Energy, the Office of Naval Research, and the American Cancer Society.

William P. Blair III

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

For almost half a century, William Blair of Canton and Columbus, Ohio, has been a model ambassador for The Ohio State University. He holds three degrees from Ohio State—a Bachelor of Arts and Master of Arts in political science, and a Juris Doctor. He is an attorney at law and founder of the William P. Blair Company, a Canton-based law and lobbying firm. He previously served as executive counsel to the director of the Ohio Department of Natural Resources and as the Canton city prosecutor.

Mr. Blair has been a tireless advocate for the university's interests in government. A former chair of the Ohio State Advocates and a current member of the alumni advocates steering committee, he is instrumental in keeping state legislators informed on issues of importance to Ohio State and the higher education community. He is a trusted advisor for university leadership, serving as chair of the Government Affairs Advisory Group and a member of the President's Club Advisory Board. In 2012, he received the Dan Heinlen Award from The Ohio State University Alumni Association for outstanding advocacy.

Mr. Blair is also a strong supporter of the Moritz College of Law. He is a member of the college's National Council and serves on its capital campaign committee. Generously investing his time, expertise, and resources, he supports the college's Leadership Scholarship initiative, leads the Blair Scholars program, and, each year, mentors a Moritz scholar with demonstrated leadership potential.

A long-time champion of the arts and culture, Mr. Blair has served as chair of the American Arts Alliance and vice chair of the League of American Orchestras and on the executive committee of the Canton Symphony Orchestra, as well as on the boards of the National First Ladies' Library, the Cleveland International Piano Competition, and Apollo's Fire, Cleveland's baroque orchestra. He was the founding president of the Ohio Foundation of the Arts, and, in 1976, he formed the Ohio Citizens for the Arts, through which he represents all of Ohio's arts and cultural organizations. He also represents all of Ohio's public broadcasting services and many social service health and educational institutions. Mr. Blair has received numerous accolades for work in the arts and humanities, including the Cleveland Arts Prize and Americans for the Arts Award.

In 2009, the Governor named him an Ohio Commodore for his contributions to economic development in the state.

Ruann F. Ernst

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Ruann Ernst of Los Altos Hills, California, and Scottsdale, Arizona, has spent the balance of her career creating opportunities for others. A highly successful businesswoman, Dr. Ernst is the former chair and CEO of Digital Island, a managed hosting and Internet services company that was acquired by Cable & Wireless PLC in 2001. She is also founder and chair of the board of Healthy LifeStars, a nonprofit focused on ending childhood obesity.

Dr. Ernst previously served in senior leadership roles at Hewlett-Packard Company and General Electric Information Services. She was also director of the Medical Computing Services Division and assistant professor of medicine and computer science at The Ohio State University.

A three-time graduate of Ohio State, she earned a bachelor's and master's degree in education, and a PhD in public administration, focusing on technology and organizational change. An enduring advocate for education, Dr. Ernst has meaningfully given back to her alma mater. In addition to serving two terms on the Alumni Association's board of directors and as vice chair of the Foundation board of directors, she has led many transformative projects as a current member of the Dean's Advisory Council for the Fisher College of Business, which aims to chart a new direction for Fisher programs in an ever-changing business world. She continues to serve as a member of the Foundation board and has recently agreed to co-chair the Ohio State Innovation Foundation.

Dr. Ernst has utilized her extensive corporate and community relationships to create unique opportunities for Ohio State students. She has personally mentored a number of students and hosted special events to promote student entrepreneurship, which allow Fisher students to engage with venture capitalists and business leaders across the country. Through her leadership at Hewlett-Packard, she helped to secure substantial funding for the College of Engineering in support of computer and information sciences. In addition, she and her husband established The Ruann F. Ernst and William C. Riffle Scholarship Fund to assist undergraduate students in technology innovation.

For her exceptional leadership and service to the university, she received the Ralph Davenport Mershon Award in 2000.

A MESSAGE FROM INTERIM PRESIDENT ALUTTO

Dear Graduates:

As your journey as an Ohio State student comes to a close, remember to revel in these moments of celebration. Today's commencement ceremony serves to recognize your achievement, which is certainly no small feat. I know that the thousands of family members, friends, and fellow graduates who have gathered here today would agree.

It is always a wonderful day to be a Buckeye but today is extra special. You have accomplished much and overcome challenges along the way: cramming for exams, waking up for 8 a.m. class, and lugging textbooks to Thompson Library to study, at times through "Summer's heat or Winter's cold." More important, you have been exposed to new people, places, and ideas—some of which have developed your skills and changed your perspectives. Armed with this new knowledge, you join a proud network of Ohio State alumni working as leaders in our communities, throughout our nation, and around the world.

Know that opportunities abound for those who hold a college degree. Allow your passion to fuel imagination into action. It is important to remember that there are countless pathways to any destination, each with its own benefits. What you achieve along the way opens new doors to even more opportunities. So as you count down to receiving your diploma, consider this: As an Ohio State graduate, what will you accomplish first?

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Joseph A. Alutto". The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name "Joseph" being the most prominent.

Joseph A. Alutto
Interim President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

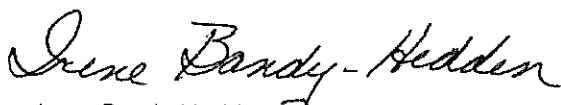

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. As you receive your degree today, you join a distinguished body of more than 500,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

The degree you hold in your hand today is the culmination of the well-rounded education you have received at Ohio State. You are among a distinguished group of alumni, for today's alumni are tomorrow's leaders. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and your alma mater to make a difference in the lives of others.

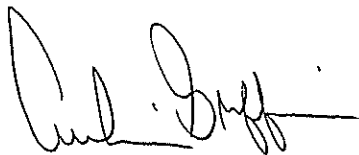

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected and actively engaged in many ways, including virtually through ohiostatealumni.org, and through involvement in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, you will be receiving a basic membership in the Alumni Association that includes an electronic subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities to connect and engage, including through alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and through alumni societies in your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

Irene Bandy-Hedden
Chair, Board of Directors
The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc.

Archie Griffin
Senior Vice President for Alumni Relations
President/CEO
The Ohio State University Alumni Association, Inc.

It's just not the same without you.

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Summer Term 2013, as of 4:30 p.m., July 26, 2013, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, Student Academic Services Building, 281 West Lane Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210-1132.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity
of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—

because my family labored long nights
around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me
the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs
to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass,

the years will roll, Time and change

will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music
to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
