Alma Mater—Carmen Ohio

Graduates and guests led by
Matthew Blair Pittman

Oh! come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,
With joy which death alone can still.
Summer's heat or Winter's cold,
The seasons pass, the years will roll;
Time and change will surely show
How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Awarding of Diplomas

Recessional

President Gee looks forward to personally congratulating you and your graduate immediately following the ceremony in French Field House.

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, at 5:30 p.m. today.

Commencement Address

John R. Galvin

Retired U.S. Army Gen. John R. Galvin, currently Distinguished Visiting Policy Analyst at Ohio State's Mershon Center, was NATO's top military commander in Europe during the final years of the Cold War. He will become dean of Tufts University's Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy on July 1.

The much-decorated four-star general was Supreme Allied Commander in Europe and Commander-in-Chief of the U.S. European Command from 1987 to 1992, when he retired to become Olin Distinguished Professor of National Security at the U.S. Military Academy at West Point. During his two years as Olin Professor, he also served six months as a U.S. State Department special ambassador assisting in Bosnian peace negotiations.

During his distinguished military career, Gen. Galvin played a leading role in the Gulf War, the Patriot missile defense of Israel, the rescue of 450,000 Kurdish refugees in northern Iraq, East-West negotiations on arms control, U.S. military operations in Africa, and humanitarian support for Central and Eastern European nations.

A native of Massachusetts, Gen. Galvin graduated from West Point. He holds a master's degree in English from Columbia University, and continued his military education at the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College and the U.S. Army War College.

In 1973 he began seven years of service in Europe in various command posts, returning to the United States in 1980 to command the 24th Infantry Division. He then returned to Europe where he commanded the VII U.S. Corps in Germany from 1983-85. From 1985 to 1987 Gen. Galvin was Commander-in-Chief of the U.S. Southern Command in Panama.

He has broad military experience outside of Europe, including two years in Vietnam with the 1st Cavalry Division and as commander of the 1st Battalion, 8th Cavalry.

In addition to his academic appointments, Gen. Galvin currently serves as chairman of the American Council on Germany and is a board member of various organizations including the Center for Creative Leadership, the Council on Foreign Relations, the National Committee on U.S. China Relations and the Institute for Defense Analyses.

He has authored three books: The Minute Men, Air Assault, and The Three Men of Boston, as well as 50 articles on strategy, tactics, history, and leadership.

Ohio State proudly welcomes this eminent soldier-statesman to address our graduates today.

Recipient of Honors

Grayce M. Sills Distinguished Service Award

Grayce M. Sills has been an active leader in mental health nursing for three decades. Now Professor Emeritus in Ohio State's College of Nursing, she is a member of the board of directors at The Ohio State University Hospitals and Independence Visiting Professor of Nursing Education at the Frances Payne Bolton School of Nursing at Case Western Reserve University in Cleveland.

Dr. Sills joined the Ohio State College of Nursing faculty in 1964 as an assistant professor. As she advanced through the academic ranks, she held a number of administrative positions, including director of the Advanced Psychiatric Mental Health Nursing Program, chair of the Department of Family and Community Nursing, director of graduate studies, and acting dean of the College of Nursing. She retired from Ohio State in 1991.

A native of Bremen, Ohio, Dr. Sills received her R.N. degree from the Rockland State Hospital School of Nursing in Orangeburg, New York, and her B.S.N. from the University of Dayton. She earned her M.S. and Ph.D. in sociology from Ohio State.

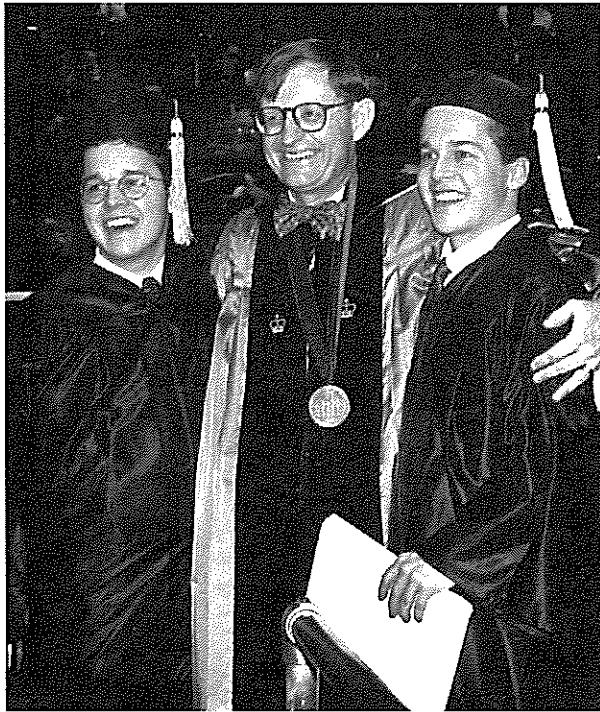

Dr. Sills was a leader in shaping Ohio State's College of Nursing, including the development of the master's and doctoral programs and acquisition of college status. Her commitment and skill as a teacher earned her a College of Medicine Teaching and Service Award and the Alumni Distinguished Teaching Award.

Dr. Sills is a nationally acclaimed scholar in the field of psychiatric nursing and has served on a number of local and state committees to improve services for the mentally ill. In 1988 Gov. Celeste appointed her to chair the Study Committee on Mental Health Services for the State of Ohio.

Among her many honors are the Professional of the Year Award from the Alliance for the Mentally Ill of Ohio, and the Psychosocial Nurse of the Year from the American Psychiatric Nurses Association. She holds an honorary doctorate from Indiana University and is a fellow of the American Academy of Nursing.

It is with great respect that Ohio State recognizes the many years of commitment and service to her university and her community by this distinguished teacher and health practitioner.

A Message From President Gee

Most of us measure our lives in year-long cycles, beginning in January and ending in December. But those of us in education observe a different calendar—one in which the year-end celebration is a graduation, and the days are counted in quarters or semesters.

For college students, the cycle begins that first autumn when they arrive on campus and advances through classes and exams, vacations and summer jobs, until commencement day finally arrives. And that day comes once again as some 1,700 Ohio State Buckeyes graduate to the cheers of proud relatives and friends.

Now, these newly minted alumni will look back briefly and move on, shifting into the day-to-day rhythms of hoped-for employment. They will leave behind late nights filled with cold pizza and hot debate. No more 7:30 in the morning classes, but instead a 7:30 commute to the office. No more papers due for class, but reports due for work. They will trade their backpacks for briefcases, their ball caps for business suits.

There is no doubt that they have been changed by their college experience. Those years, whether spent at a major research university or a small, liberal arts college, represent not only a growth in knowledge but a growth in wisdom and common sense—a maturing process that prepares a student for life in the "real world." And that world does not stand still.

We need only look at the capitals of the world and the corporations of America to realize that powerful forces have been at work. During the time it has taken this most recent crop of graduates to complete their educations, the Soviet Union has come apart, Germany has come together, ethnic warfare has erupted, trade barriers have fallen, and once-mighty businesses have been brought to their knees by economic forces.

Today's graduates are being launched into a world made smaller by the media and larger by the scope of our global dilemmas: the environment, ethics, illiteracy, racism, sexism, revolution, protest, famine, and poverty.

The world is crying for the compassion and creativity of our graduates. And we need their considerable energy and ingenuity to resolve conflicts, regain civility, and restore our spirits.

That is why, for all of us, graduation is a time that renews our hope in the future. As I preside over Ohio State's commencement, I am impressed by the intelligence, dedication, and vigor of our new college graduates, young and not so young. And I feel an old, familiar feeling: optimism. Optimism about the actions our industries are taking to regain a competitive edge. Optimism about the adjustments education is making in response to a changing society. And, most of all, optimism about and faith in this new generation that is about to take its place in our society.

Today, as many of them leave school behind, their memories are bittersweet. One of Ohio State's engineering graduates sent me a letter that, I believe, captures the great joy we share in this special rite of passage and the strength of the educational process. She wrote, "There will be at least one chemical engineer with a tear in her eye as the national anthem is played, a lump in her throat as her college is introduced, a smile on her face as she gets her diploma, and a cry of joy as her father hugs her and says, 'I am so proud of you!'"

It is a pride in which we can all share. I thank this graduate, and thousands like her, for all they will bring to our society. They are very bright. They work very hard. They have learned to live without security, but they continue to seek it. They are ready not only to cope with change, but to create change. And they have turned away from "me-ism" and are again seeking ways to help their fellow human beings.

I am confident that when this generation assumes leadership, America will be in very good hands.

Congratulations and Welcome to the Alumni Association

Congratulations on receiving your degree. You may not notice the difference, but today, along with hundreds of your colleagues, you've become an alumnus. For you, one era has passed, and another is about to begin.

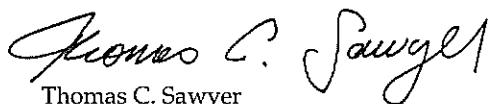

You are a member of the Buckeye family and partner in the enterprise, carrying the reputation of Ohio State through your activities and accomplishments. You exemplify the fruits of a good education: a critical mind, a discerning spirit, higher values, a sense of commitment, and the privilege of service.

You can assist the university in many ways. You can recruit new and highly qualified students. You can represent Ohio State well through personal and occupational achievements. You can participate financially through the Development Fund. And you can work in an advisory capacity with the university to improve itself and its programs to better prepare today's students for tomorrow's citizenship.

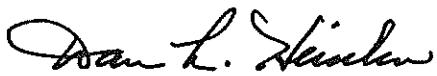

We extend to you a year's complimentary membership in the Alumni Association. Included is a year's subscription to the Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will keep you informed of the university's continuing pursuit of excellence and help you keep in touch with your friends and classmates.

To you, your family, friends, and those others who helped you arrive here today go our best wishes. You are joining a great family of Ohio State alumni working together to make a difference around the world.

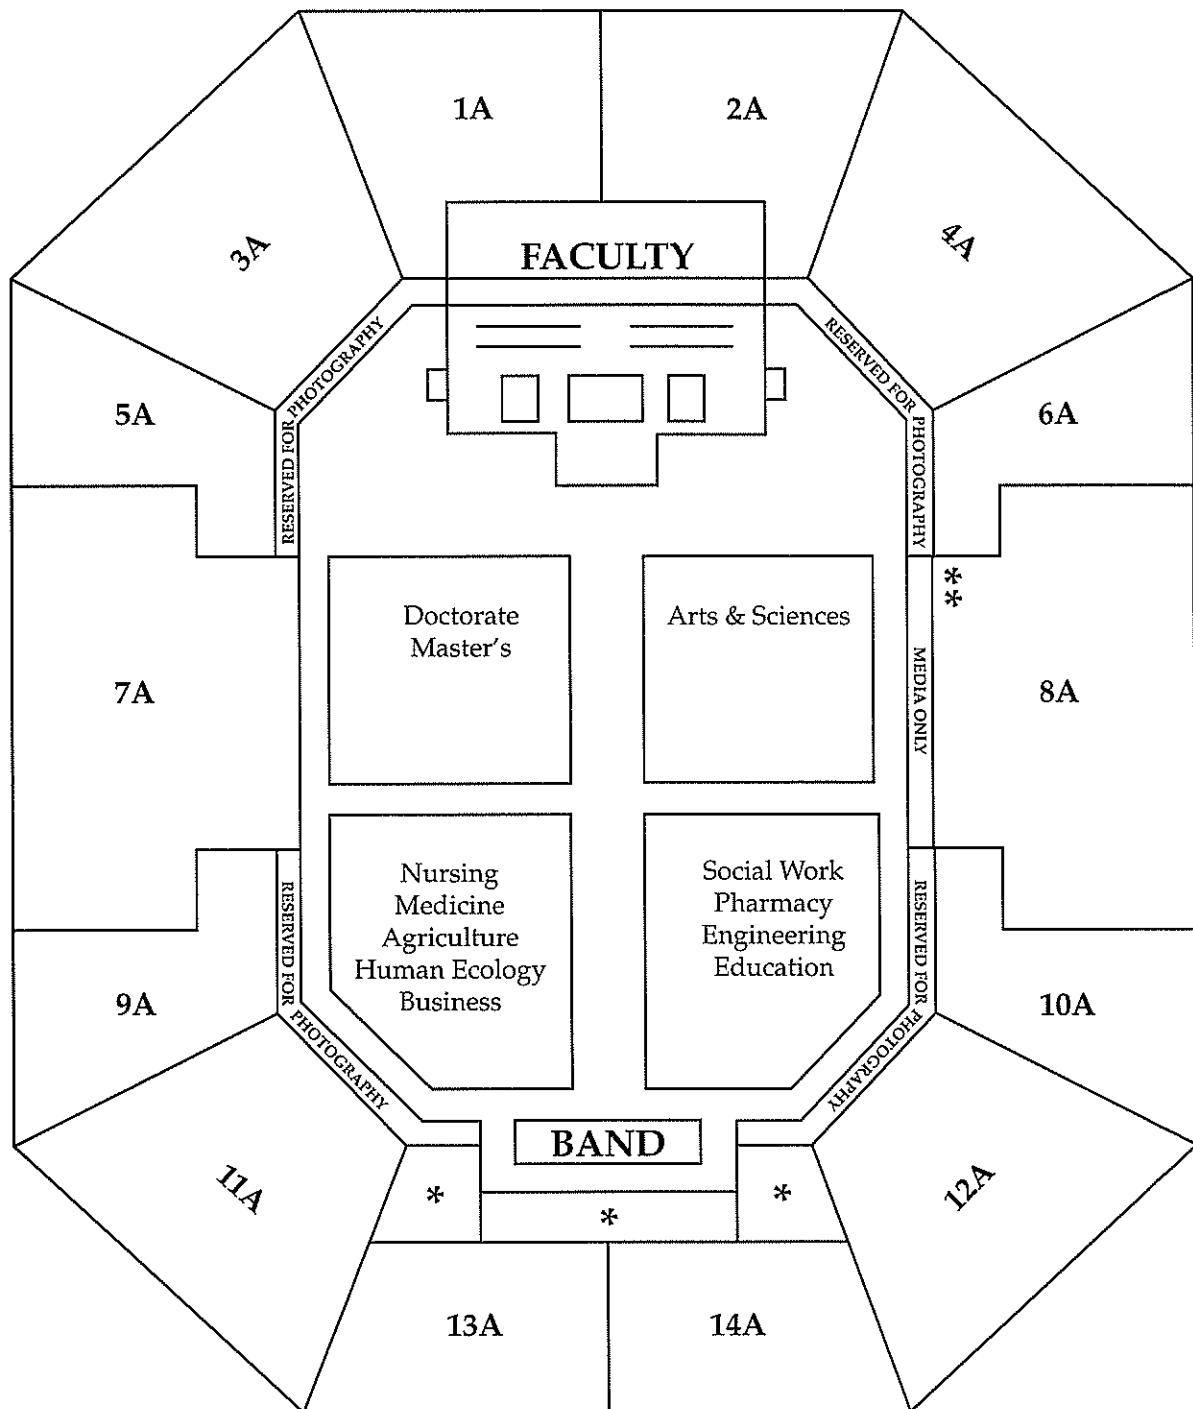

Cordially,

Graduates with Honors

Criteria for graduating with honors are as follows:

Summa Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 3% of the class.

Magna Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 6% of the class.

Cum Laude designates those graduating in the top 10% of the class.

With Distinction requires successful completion of a Senior Honors Thesis and graduation in the top 25% of the class.

With Honors in the Liberal Arts requires successful completion of the Arts and Sciences Honors Contract and graduation in the top 25% of the class.

University Commendation designates those whose attainment of high academic standards is judged by the college to be especially meritorious.

This program is not an official graduation list

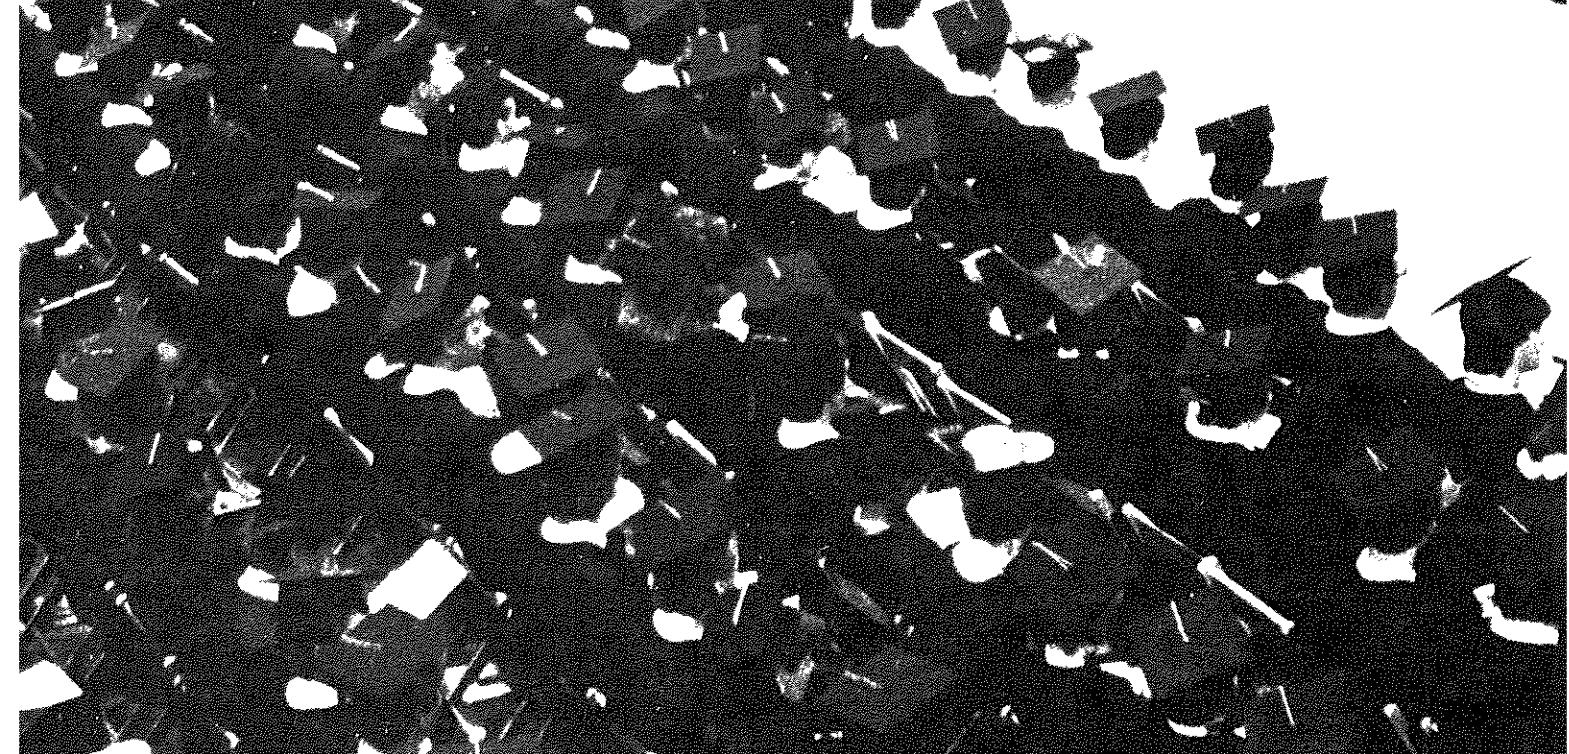

While every effort is made to ensure accuracy in this commencement program, printing deadlines sometimes prevent inclusion of graduates' names, or may result in use of names of persons not completing graduation requirements. This printed program, therefore, should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of The University Registrar, 202 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

The Academic Costume

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University Commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In the light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor. Black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master. Black, long or short sleeves with a re-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor. Black with velvet panels on front of gown and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Color of the velvet may be black or distinctive of the field of study.

The Hood

Bachelor. Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master. Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Doctor. Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Dentistry	Lilac
Law	Purple
Medicine	Green
Musical Arts	Pink
Optometry	Sea-foam Green
Pharmacy	Olive Green
Philosophy	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine	Gray

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School	Black
Colleges of the Arts and Sciences
College of the Arts (B.A., B.S.I.D.)	White
(Others)	Brown
School of Music (B.A.)	White
(Others)	Pink
College of Biological Sciences	White
College of Humanities	White
College of Mathematical and Physical Sciences	White
College of Social and Behavioral Sciences	White
School of Journalism	Crimson
College of Agriculture	Maize
School of Natural Resources	Blue-Green
College of Business	Drab
School of Public Policy and Management	Peacock Blue
College of Dentistry	Lilac
College of Education	Light Blue
School of Health, Physical Education, and Recreation	Sage Green
College of Engineering	Orange
School of Architecture	Blue-Violet

College of Medicine	Green
School of Allied Medical Professions	Green
College of Nursing	Apricot
College of Optometry	Seafoam Green
College of Pharmacy	Olive Green
College of Social Work	Citron
College of Veterinary Medicine	Gray

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating Summa Cum Laude, Magna Cum Laude, Cum Laude, With Distinction, With Honors in the Liberal Arts, and With Honors in Pharmacy.
