The Ohio State University Commencement

CORRECTED COPY

Time and change will surely show how firm thy friendship—Ohio.

Pomp, Circumstance, and Other Songs of a Lifetime

—by David Citino, Professor of English and Creative Writing and University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony

is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.

I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony

means you all are less young than you were.
Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of jujitsu. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect.

And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun.

*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,

President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, *the richness of us,
precious difference*, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.

Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues.

We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother

I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here.

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song

When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.

Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mothe

We came of age here, with her help.
*Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place of our own*. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass,

the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship.
O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

Recessional

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, at 5:30 p.m. on March 22.

President Holbrook looks forward to personally congratulating graduates on the stage after the class recessional has concluded.

Lonnie G. Thompson

Lonnie G. Thompson is Distinguished University Professor in The Ohio State University Department of Geological Sciences and research scientist in the university's Byrd Polar Research Center.

A native of West Virginia, Professor Thompson earned his B.S. degree from Marshall University in 1970 and his M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in geology from Ohio State in 1973 and 1976, respectively. He joined Ohio State's faculty in 1976.

Professor Thompson has become a leading national spokesperson on the subject of global climate change and one of the most respected voices in the world on related policy issues, as well as a scientist whose work will influence the future of the planet and all of its inhabitants. He is the author of more than 165 publications and recipient of more than 50 research grants.

He and his team have spent more than two decades drilling ice cores from mountaintop ice caps throughout at least seven countries and returning them to the university for analysis. Those cores contain stratigraphic records of climate that can extend back hundreds of thousands of years, providing insight into the changes that are occurring throughout the world today. In 2001, he shocked the public and scientific community alike when he announced that analysis of ice cores from high mountain glaciers in Africa and Peru showed that the glaciers were melting at an alarming rate—one that will likely lead to the disappearance of Kilimanjaro's ice fields within the next 15 years.

Professor Thompson is currently principle investigator for National Science Foundation-funded climate studies of the Quelccaya and Coropuna ice caps in the Southern Andes and the Bona-Churchill Ice Field in Alaska.

He is the recipient of numerous awards, including the Royal Netherlands Academy of Arts and Sciences' 2002 Dr. A.H. Heineken Prize for Environmental Science and the 2002 Common Wealth Award for Science and Innovation, which recognizes distinguished service to the world community. In 2001, he was named one of "America's Best in Science and Medicine" by Time magazine and the Cable News Network. Ohio State has designated him a Distinguished University Professor, the highest honor bestowed on faculty.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Avery Cardinal Dulles, S.J.

Doctor of Humane Letters

An internationally known author and lecturer, Avery Cardinal Dulles, S.J., is currently the Laurence J. McGinley Professor of Religion and Society at Fordham University, a position he has held since 1988.

Cardinal Dulles was born in Auburn, New York, to John Foster Dulles and Janet Pomeroy Avery Dulles and was educated in New England and Switzerland before enrolling in Harvard College where he received his A.B. degree. Following his 1940 graduation from Harvard, he spent a year and a half in Harvard Law School before serving four years as an officer in the United States Naval Reserve in the Atlantic, Caribbean, and Mediterranean areas.

Upon his military discharge, Cardinal Dulles entered the novitiate of the Society of Jesus and was ordained to the Jesuit priesthood in 1956. He received a doctorate in sacred theology in 1960 from the Gregorian University in Rome and served on the faculties of Woodstock College in Maryland from 1960 to 1974 and The Catholic University of America from 1974 to 1988. In 2001, he was created a cardinal of the Catholic Church in Rome by Pope John Paul II.

Frequently sought as a visiting professor, Cardinal Dulles has written more than 700 articles on theological topics and has published 22 books, including Models of the Church (1974), Models of Revelation (1983), The Splendor of Faith: The Theological Vision of Pope John Paul II (1999; revised in 2003), and Newman (2002).

Past president of both the Catholic

Theological Society of America and the American Theological Society and professor emeritus at The Catholic University of America, Cardinal Dulles has served on the International Theological Commission and as a member of the United States Lutheran/Roman Catholic Dialogue. He currently is a consultant to the Committee on Doctrine of the National Conference of Catholic Bishops.

His many awards include the Croix de Guerre, the Cardinal Spellman Award for distinguished achievement in theology, the Boston College Presidential Bicentennial Award, the Religious Education Forum Award from the National Catholic Educational Association, the John Carroll Society Medal, and the Jerome Award from the Catholic Library Association of America.

Durbin D. Feeling

Doctor of Humane Letters

Durbin D. Feeling has devoted his professional life to the description, preservation, and teaching of the Cherokee language. He currently is an instructor of Cherokee in the Department of Anthropology at the University of Oklahoma in Norman and served for seven years as the tribal linguist for the Cherokee Nation. He has served as adjunct professor of Cherokee at Rogers State University in Claremore, Oklahoma, and the University of Tulsa, where he has developed new methods of teaching Cherokee literacy.

A native of Claremore, Oklahoma, Mr. Feeling received an associate of arts degree from Bacom College in Muskogee in 1966, a bachelor of arts degree in journalism from Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Oklahoma, in 1979, and a master of arts degree in descriptive linguistics from the University of California at Irvine in 1992. He is completing his doctorate in social sciences at the University of California at Irvine.

Mr. Feeling began his career in linguistics as a language specialist in the Cherokee Bilingual Education program in North Carolina. His Cherokee-English Dictionary (1975), published by the Cherokee Nation of Oklahoma, along with his co-authored (with William Pulte) Outline of Cherokee Grammar form the bedrock for all modern linguistic research on the Cherokee language. His most recent text is The Basic Inflection of the Cherokee Verb. He continues to publish his scholarly research on the Cherokee language and is at work on a modern translation of the Cherokee New Testament. All his published works benefit the Cherokee people both financially and linguistically.

Mr. Feeling was a participant in a 1997 Smithsonian-sponsored discussion program entitled "The People, The Language: Preserving and Maintaining the Native Languages of North America," and he has conducted numerous workshops and seminars on Native American linguistics. He has served at various times in his career as the director of adult education for the Cherokee Nation and director of the Cherokee Nation's Summer Institute of Cherokee Literacy.

Mr. Feeling is a prominent community leader in the United Keetoowah Band of Cherokee Indians in Oklahoma, a decorated war veteran who served in Vietnam, and a lay minister in the Southern Baptist Church. He was a 1985 recipient of the U.S. Jaycees Outstanding Young Men of America Award.

Rodney J. Harrison

Distinguished Service Award

Rodney J. Harrison is associate vice provost of student affairs emeritus at The Ohio State University, having retired in 1988 after three decades of service to the university.

Following military service with the U.S. Navy in the Pacific Theatre, Mr. Harrison received his B.S. degree in secondary education in 1950 and his M.Ed. degree in guidance and counseling in 1953 from Ohio State. He joined the university's administrative staff in 1957 as director of the University Scholarship Office. In 1984, he was named associate vice provost of student affairs.

In 1958, Mr. Harrison began a 25-year tenure as Ohio State's director of student financial aid. He was instrumental in proposing state and federally funded financial aid programs to enable greater access to higher education when such programs did not yet exist at Ohio State. His recommendation that Ohio State become a college sponsor of National Merit and National Achievement Scholarships has led to a more selective student body and an increased national academic reputation over the years. He continually sought to make Ohio State's financial aid programs understandable to legislators, administrators, parents, and students. Today's Office of Student Financial Aid still bears witness to his efforts in its policies, staff development, and student funds, including a scholarship fund in his name.

Mr. Harrison also brought national attention to Ohio State and its programs through his service as a trustee of the College Entrance Examination Board and as a member of the National Association of State University and Land-Grant Colleges' Committee on Veterans Affairs and National Service and the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators. In addition, he has served as president of the Midwest Association of Student Financial Administrators and the Ohio Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.

His commitment to students has been recognized at Ohio State by his honorary membership in Sphinx, Romophos, the Evans Scholars, and Phi Eta Sigma. He is the recipient of the university's William H. Watson Jr. Award, the University College Summa Award, the Office of Minority Affairs Service Award, and the College of Food, Agricultural, and Environmental Sciences Certificate of Merit.

Robert F. Reusché

Distinguished Service Award

Robert F. Reusché is the retired vice chair of the Northern Trust Company, a large multi-state trust and banking corporation headquartered in Chicago.

A 1949 graduate of The Ohio State University in business administration, Mr. Reusché earned his M.B.A. degree from the University of Chicago. He joined the Northern Trust Company in 1952 and held a variety of posts on the trust side of the business. He was appointed vice chair of Northern Trust's board in 1982, serving in that role until his 1990 retirement. At the time of his retirement, he had headed the company's trust department for 19 years.

Long an advocate of the importance of a liberal arts education, Mr. Reusché continues to be an active volunteer in Ohio State's College of Humanities, working with students, alumni, and potential donors to advance humanities-based initiatives. Together with his wife, Mary Westbrook Reusché, a 1950 Ohio State graduate in business administration, he has established the Robert and Mary Reusché Humanities Scholar Endowed Scholarship Fund to provide support for students who qualify for the Humanities Scholars Program. They are founding members of the College of Humanities Dean's Advisory Committee.

From 1995 to 2000, Mr. Reusché served on the Fisher College of Business Campaign Committee, and he joined The Ohio State University Foundation Board in 2001. The Reuschés have also committed their leadership and support to other university programs, including the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute, the University Libraries, and the John Glenn Institute for Public Service and Public Policy. In 2002, Mr. Reusché received Ohio State's John B. Gerlach Sr. Development Volunteer Award.

Active in community affairs, Mr. Reusché is a trustee of the Policeman's Annuity and Benefit Fund of the City of Chicago; director of the Bowman Home at the Ruch-Presbyterian-St. Luke's Hospital; executive director of the Lake County, Illinois, Community Foundation; and a member of the Nature Conservancy's Illinois and West Virginia chapters.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT PROGRAM

In 1891, a group of students planted five elm trees on the Oval the evening before graduation and the Class Gift tradition was born. Since that time, Ohio State students have continued to celebrate their commencements with gifts to the university.

For 2004, the Student Campaign Advisory Board is focusing its Class Gift efforts to help fund the renovation of “The Long Walk” on the Oval. Rich in history and tradition, this project touches the lives of most students who walk the Ohio State campus each day. Students may also wish to designate their Class Gift to their college or school’s Annual Fund or any other fund they choose.

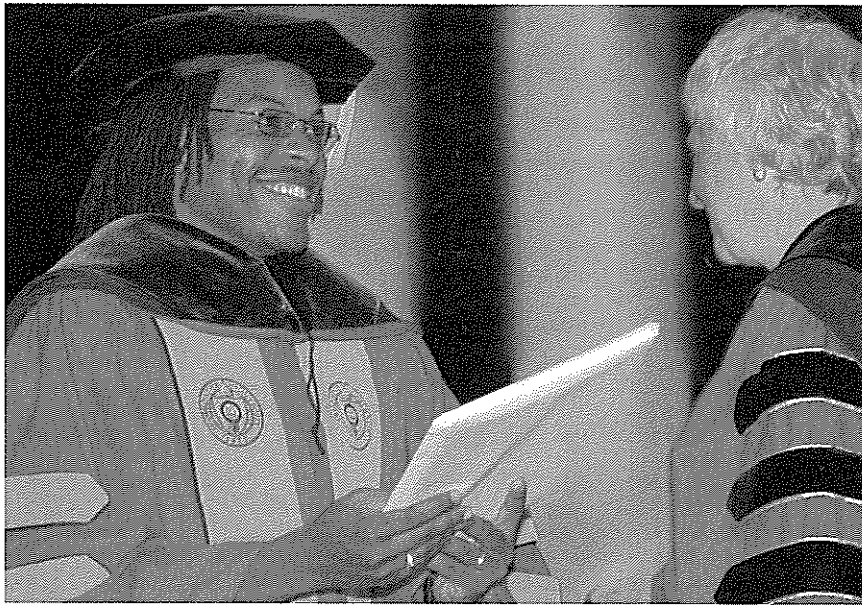

The Student Campaign provides an opportunity for students to become involved in Ohio State’s unique campus-wide culture of giving. As part of this culture, the Class Gift is a special way for graduating students to express their thanks for the education they received and leave a legacy that will benefit future Ohio State students for years to come.

Graduates who wish to make their 2004 Class Gift may contact the Student Campaign coordinator in the Office of Annual Giving.

Congratulations on your graduation, and we hope you look forward to this next chapter in your lifelong relationship as a Buckeye. Thanks for your support!

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencement derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study:

Law.....	Purple

Optometry.....	Seafoam Green
Pharmacy.....	Olive Green
Philosophy.....	Dark Blue
Veterinary Medicine.....	Gray

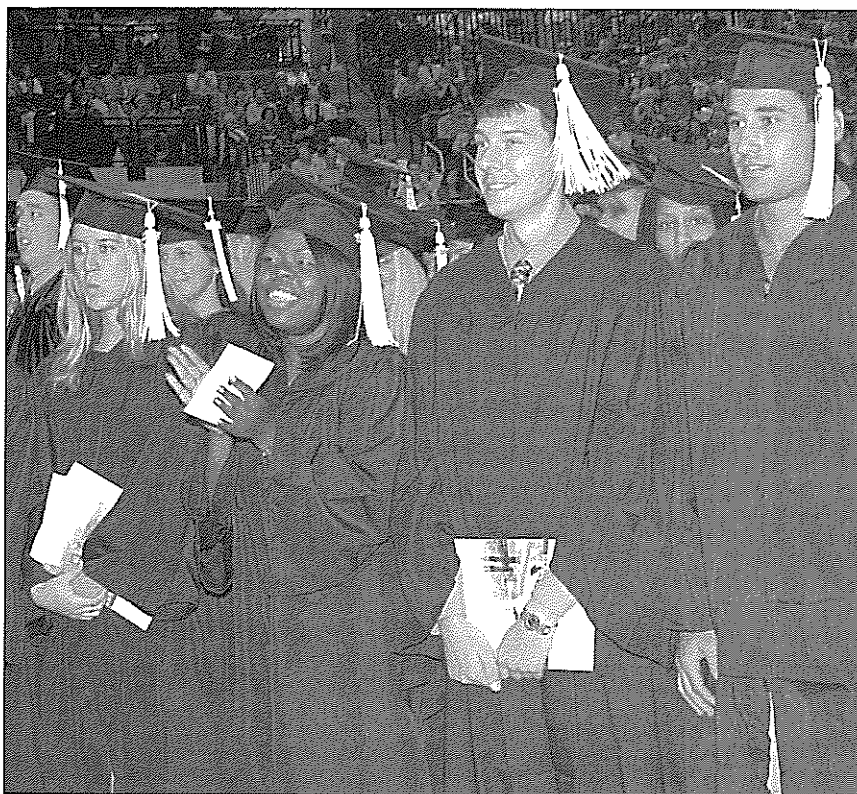

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

Graduate School (Ph.D.)	Gray
