COMMENCEMENT • WINTER 2008

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly. Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CDs—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn. I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater, Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Steven A. Davis

Steven A. Davis was elected chair of the board and chief executive officer of Bob Evans Farms, Inc., in 2006.

Before joining the company, Mr. Davis worked at Yum! Brands, Inc., where he had been president of Long John Silver's and A&W All-American Food Restaurants since 2002. Previously, he served in a variety of operations management and other executive positions in Yum! Brands' Pizza Hut division, including senior vice president of concept development, where his team introduced the Wing Street concept.

Before joining Pizza Hut in 1993, Mr. Davis was with Kraft General Foods for nine years. His last position with Kraft was as director of marketing for All American Gourmet. Earlier in his career, he held a series of brand management positions in Kraft's cheese business where he launched several successful new products and marketing campaigns.

Mr. Davis serves as a board member of the Arthur G. James Cancer Hospital and Richard J. Solove Research Institute Foundation. He is a member of the Columbus Partnership and Compete

Columbus, two organizations focused on economic development for the region. He is also a board member of the National Restaurant Association and the EMBARQ Corp. ($6.5 billion company), which provides local and long-distance voice, data, high-speed Internet, wireless, and entertainment services to customers in its serving areas. Mr. Davis was the 2007 chair for Operation Feed, which provides food for needy families in central Ohio. He served as chair of the board of Summerbridge Louisville educational assistance program from 2003 to 2006 and was a board member from 2000 to 2003 of Turner 12, a Dallas-based organization that provides assistance to lower-income children to attend college.

He holds a master of business administration degree in marketing and finance from the University of Chicago and a bachelor of science in business administration from the University of Wisconsin at Milwaukee. Mr. Davis and his wife of 25 years, Lynnda, have three daughters and reside in Columbus.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Roy G. Glauber

Doctor of Science

Nobel laureate Roy J. Glauber is Mallinckrodt Professor of Physics at Harvard University and adjunct professor of optical sciences at the University of Arizona.

A native of New York City, he was a member of the first graduating class of the Bronx High School of Science. He enrolled at Harvard in 1941, attending undergraduate classes until he was invited in 1944 to join the Theory Division of the Manhattan Project at Los Alamos, New Mexico, where, at the age of 18, he had the opportunity to work with Robert Oppenheimer, Richard Feynman, Neils Bohr, and Hans Bethe. Following World War II, he returned to Harvard, receiving his BS in 1946 and his PhD in 1949. He did post-doctoral work at Princeton's Institute for Advance Study and the Swiss Federal Institute of Technology in Zürich. After a year as a lecturer at the California Institute of Technology, he joined Harvard's physics faculty, becoming professor of physics in 1962 and Mallinckrodt Professor in 1976.

Professor Glauber's groundbreaking research on optical coherence and the behavior of light particles, first published in 1963, was recognized in 2005 when he was awarded half the Nobel Prize in Physics. He is also the recipient of the A.A. Michelson Prize of the Franklin Institute, the Max Born Award of the American Physical Society, an A. Von Humboldt Research Award, the Dannie Heineman Prize of the American Physical Society, and the Willis E. Lamb Medal for Laser Science and Quantum Optics.

Professor Glauber is also known for his work on high energy nuclear collision theory. He is the author of more than 120 articles in refereed journals and has served on the editorial board of the Journal of Mathematical Physics and Nuclear Physics B. He is a fellow of the National Academy of Science, the American Academy of Arts and Sciences, and the American Physical Society, and he is an honorary foreign member of the Royal Society of London and the New Zealand Academy of Sciences.

He has been a visiting professor or scientist at CERN in Geneva, the University of Leiden in Holland, the Collège de France in Paris, NORDITA in Denmark, and director of a session at the Enrico Fermi School in Varenna, Italy.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Patricia Duke Robinson

Distinguished Service Award

Patricia Duke Robinson is president of the board of trustees for the Paul G. Duke Foundation, which was established by and named for her father, founder of the lawn services company, ChemLawn.

Mrs. Robinson is a longtime supporter of The Ohio State University and currently serves on the university's foundation board. She is a member of the Library Renovation Campaign Committee and, with her husband, Thom, she has made a leadership gift to the William Oxley Thompson Library renovation project. The Robinsons hosted a "Farewell Fiesta" to mark the beginning of construction, an important milestone of the renovation.

A resident of Troy, Ohio, she also serves on The Ohio State University National Major Gift Council for Ohio's Miami Valley. She and her husband have lent their support to the Department of Athletics, where they established the Patricia A. and Thomas E. Robinson Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund, and to the College of Veterinary Medicine, where they were instrumental in efforts to build a new veterinary medicine academic building. In addition, Mrs. Robinson participated in the "Experience Ohio State Focus Day" for women in 1997.

She is involved in a range of other community and philanthropic activities, including the Future Begins Today, a Troy-based last-dollar grant college assistance program that also offers academic and motivational programs for Troy elementary and junior high students. She is a member of the Miami County YMCA board of trustees.

Mrs. Robinson's honors include the Outstanding Philanthropists Award along with her husband from the National Society of Fund-Raising Executives, the Women of Excellence Award from the YWCA of Piqua, and the Friend of Community Colleges Award.

Thomas E. Robinson

Distinguished Service Award

Thomas E. Robinson retired in 1978 from Dinner Bell Foods, Inc., where he served as area sales manager of southwest Ohio.

A resident of Troy, Ohio, Mr. Robinson is an enthusiastic advocate for The Ohio State University with wide-ranging interests. He and his wife, Patricia, have worked tirelessly to generate support for the renovation of the William Oxley Thompson Library and have made a generous lead gift to the effort. In addition, as avid Buckeye fans, he and his wife created the Thomas E. and Patricia A. Robinson Athletic Scholarship Endowment Fund. The Robinsons were also instrumental in gaining support for the College of Veterinary Medicine Building Fund for a new academic building.

Mr. Robinson currently serves as chair of the Troy Foundation governing board. He also has served for seven years as a member of the Edison Community College foundation board, participating in major fund-raising efforts for the college. He is currently chair of the Acorn Society Foundation, a support group for the Troy Foundation, which serves the needs of Troy.

The Robinsons' community activities and support extend to the Upper Valley Hospital and regional hospitals in Cincinnati and Dayton, the Brukner Nature Center, and the Clear Creek Farm in Sidney.

Mr. Robinson attended Troy High School and joined the United States Marine Corps in 1949, serving two tours of duty before starting his business career in 1953.

In 1995, he and his wife received the Outstanding Philanthropists Award from the National Society of Fund-Raising Executives.

THE OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CLASS GIFT

For more than a century, graduating seniors have joined together to bestow a Class Gift upon the university. This tradition began in 1891 when a group of students planted five elm trees on the Oval the evening before graduation.

Since then, Class Gifts have touched the lives of hundreds of thousands of Ohio State students, alumni, and friends. From the Orton Hall chimes to “The Long Walk” on the Oval, Class Gifts have shaped our campus experience, helping to create the Ohio State we all know and cherish today.

Class Gifts are also shaping the Ohio State of tomorrow. The 2008 Class Gift is continuing this rich tradition. As the Class of 2008 collectively prepares to cross the stage as students and leave as graduates, they are leaving a legacy that will celebrate this special day and benefit future generations of Ohio State students for years to come.

They are leaving an indelible mark on the university—literally. Across campus, the new Ohio Union is being built. The 2008 Class Gift is a 16-foot university seal that will be embedded in the floor of the Great Hall in the new Ohio Union.

Continuing in the tradition of the first Ohio Union, the new Ohio Union will open in 2010 and serve as a hub for students to gather, participate in activities, and be part of a community. It will also be a place where alumni and friends can return to reminisce about their campus experience. The beautiful seal will serve as a focal point, reminding past, present, and future Buckeyes of the Class of 2008’s generosity.

As we continue to build on the past to build for the future, graduates who wish to make their 2008 Class Gift of $20.08 may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the Class of 2008 and thanks them for making a difference at Ohio State!

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Today marks your official launch. My expectations for you are boundless, just as they are for Ohio State. After all, you are now a graduate of one of the finest universities in the world. I hope that makes you feel both proud and somewhat pressured.

You might start by asking yourself two questions, as most new graduates who are contemplating a move will do: What should I keep? What should I give away? Although I am no longer young enough to know everything, I do know enough to offer this advice. Some things to keep: An open mind, as challenged by your professors. The memory of Orton Hall's chimes, because that is tradition. The sound of jackhammers at the Ohio Union and Thompson Library, because that is progress. Keep close the friend you made during orientation, when you were both excited and overwhelmed. Lock the best of this place in your heart and stow it away for the times you will need sustenance. Set out tomorrow morning, pick up just the right wind, and launch the next phase of your life.

You will have to jettison some things. Keep away from people who diminish your dreams, who deride your ambitions. Give up your doubts, and that little voice inside your head that says, "You can't." Ohio State says you can.

Even as you may struggle to make ends meet, you have so much to give away. Give your time and talent to a cause you believe in. Give your hope to make a better world, because you come from a great public university that believes in doing the world's good. Give your courage when it is not convenient, your integrity now that it is most needed, your honesty in all things large and small. Give your compassion, because the world often seems to be running short. Give it your best shot, every day.

Like me, you will look to Ohio State as a harbor of high aspirations. When you tell people that you are an Ohio State graduate, you will be telling them our story, singing our song. You will represent the great promise of this land-grant institution to make a difference in others' lives. You will know, firsthand, that Ohio State changes lives.

Go where your calling takes you, along a route that might meander. Go beyond the routine, the expected, and the easy. Like this university, you are capable of greatness. As you prepare to cast off, I hope that Ohio State has lived up to all your expectations. Now it is your turn to live up to ours. And send me a postcard every now and then to let me know how you are doing.

O-H!

E. Gordon Gee
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of more than 440,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected virtually: ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities, including alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and alumni societies connected with your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

Yvette McGee Brown

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Winter Quarter 2008, as of 5:00 p.m., March 7, 2008, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, 320 Lincoln Tower, 1800 Cannon Drive, Columbus, Ohio 43210.

Colleges of the Arts and Sciences

Executive Dean: Jacqueline J. Royster

The Colleges of the Arts and Sciences, a federation of five colleges, includes the College of the Arts, the College of Biological Sciences, the College of Humanities, the College of Mathematical and Physical Sciences, the College of Social and Behavioral Sciences, and Arts and Sciences students enrolled in interdisciplinary programs.

Graduates with Honors

Criteria for graduating with honors are listed below. Grade-point averages (GPA) are based on the student's penultimate quarter.

Summa Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.9 GPA or better.

Magna Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.7 GPA or better.

Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.5 GPA or better.

With Honors in Business/Accounting requires successful completion of a prescribed honors program of study and graduation with a 3.5 GPA or better.

With Honors in Education and Human Ecology requires successful completion of an honors experience contract and graduation with a 3.4 GPA or better.

With Honors in Engineering requires successful completion of an honors experience contract and graduation with a 3.4 GPA or better.

With Honors in the Arts and Sciences requires successful completion of the Arts and Sciences Honors Contract and graduation with a 3.3 GPA or better (3.4 GPA for students who started the honors program Autumn 2006 or later).

With Distinction requires successful completion of a Senior Honors Thesis and a 3.3 GPA or better.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—

a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.

Cap and Tassel

Candidates for degrees at The Ohio State University wear the black mortarboard with a tassel whose color is distinctive of the degree being received. The tassel colors are as follows:

Graduate School (PhD) .....	Gray

* Not usually worn by candidates for a degree.

The gold tassel is worn frequently by those holding the doctoral degree and by college and university administrative officers.

Photography

Designated areas in sections 110 and 121 are reserved for picture-taking by guests. No permanent seating or placement of video cameras is permitted in these areas. Guests are asked to be courteous and respectful of all those wishing to take photographs. Only press photographers are permitted on the arena floor.
