Winter
Commencement 2011

OHIO STATE

Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,

And songs to Alma Mater raise;

While our hearts rebounding thrill,

With joy which death alone can still.

Summer's heat or Winter's cold,

The seasons pass, the years will roll;

Time and change will surely show

How firm thy friendship—Ohio.

—Carmen Ohio

POMP, CIRCUMSTANCE, AND OTHER SONGS OF A LIFETIME

—by Professor David Citino, 1947-2005, Late University Poet Laureate (Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head,
not to mention a funny robe, full of music—
poems and melodies, the tunes
we move to, shower and shave by,
study, write to. Not just the incidental,

but the momentous music keeping time.
Our histories are measures of song.
Listen to your heart: drums of Africa,
sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often,

music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Bohème, Sono un poeta.
I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony

is loud music—pomp and circumstance
of the life you began freshman year
or that first day of graduate school.
In my head I press Play, and the CD
of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger

over moments too sweet, nearly, for words.
I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery.
Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents
of Cleveland. Gaudeamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony

means you all are less young than you were.
Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades.
Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King
(King of what, fried butter sandwiches?)
who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—

kill some rabbits—to earn respect.
And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end of Lonely Street, so difficult was it to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford,

"Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore
we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's
fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o.
My grandfather was a peasant farmer,
a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. *Lucky, lucky,

lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun*.
*I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours,
That leaves eight hours for fun*.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years
for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere,

or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even,
President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage

it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport.
You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing.
You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing
with the diversity of us. Diversity.
Networks and talk shows devalue the word.

I say, rather, the richness of us,
precious difference, the grand multiplicity
of selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights

around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago.

Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me
through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles!
My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history.
Now you, graduates, are being honored—

by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State.
Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio,

in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us

we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing
with pleasure or bathed in the blues.
We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul.

Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry
is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park,

and you searched our dark, ancient library
for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first
"Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help

but feel, as is the sweet mother
I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars. Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay.
So many of us would not be here

were it not for the lullabies and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs.
Some are here today in the flesh.
Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song.

When we sing to others, we honor
our fathers and mothers, thank them

for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater.
Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help.
*Well, Mother, we love you, but, like,
it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet* from crying. We won't forget you.

Now, even though this ceremony
means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. *Summer's heat,

and winter's cold, The seasons pass,
the years will roll, Time and change*

will surely show How firm thy friendship.
O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score.
Continue to work hard for yourselves,
and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world.

Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn
our ancestors collaborated on with us,
the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly

all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—
to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.

Recessional

Excerpts from the commencement ceremony will be broadcast on WOSU-TV, Channel 34, on March 21 at 5:30 p.m.

President Gee looks forward to personally congratulating graduates on the stage immediately following the ceremony.

Donna A. James

Donna James is managing director of Lardon & Associates LLC, the advisory services firm she founded in 2006. She is a trusted resource and advisor for senior business leaders and small businesses on issues related to governance, new business development, strategy, financial and risk management, and leadership development. A national business leader with executive experience at the highest corporate levels, she also serves on the board of directors for Coca-Cola Enterprises, CNO Financial, Limited Brands, and Time Warner Cable.

Previously, Ms. James was president of Nationwide Strategic Investments—a division of Nationwide Mutual Insurance Company. In this role, she was responsible for developing and executing growth strategies for five U.S. and global financial subsidiaries and affiliates. She also spearheaded a new business innovation team and a venture capital fund to discover, analyze, and commercialize opportunities in financial services. Prior to joining Nationwide, Ms. James was an accounting professional with PricewaterhouseCoopers. She holds a BS in accounting from North Carolina Agricultural and Technical State University, two honorary doctorates, and designation as a CPA (non-practicing).

Ms. James has served in many leadership and advisory roles at The Ohio State University. She served on the Wexner Center for the Arts board of trustees and was co-chair of the National Council of Ohio State Women, an organization to promote networking and mentoring among university alumnae. She has been a featured speaker in the MBA for Working Professionals Program, and served as panelist for Fisher College's Women's Leadership Summit.

In Columbus, Ms. James founded and chairs the board of the Center for Healthy Families, a nonprofit organization focused on transforming the lives of pregnant and parenting teens and their children. She also serves as a board trustee for Ohio Health and as executive director of the African American Leadership Academy.

Ms. James received the 2010 Lettie Pate Whitehead Evans Award from the Board of Directors Network, the national Beta Gamma Sigma Business Achievement Award, and the YWCA Women of Achievement Award. She is a member of the Junior Achievement Business Hall of Fame and the National Historically Black College and Universities Hall of Fame. Black Enterprise Magazine named her one of the top 75 in Corporate America in 2005.

In 2010, Ms. James was named by President Obama as chair of the National Women's Business Council, a nonpartisan advisory group to the president, Congress, and the Small Business Administration.

RECIPIENTS OF HONORS

Solomon H. Snyder

DOCTOR OF SCIENCE

Solomon H. Snyder, MD, is a world-renowned neuroscientist and distinguished service professor of neuroscience, pharmacology, and psychiatry at Johns Hopkins University. He was a founding member of the Department of Neuroscience at Johns Hopkins in 1980 and served as head of the department from 1980 to 2006, when it was renamed the Solomon H. Snyder Department of Neuroscience.

A 1962 graduate of Georgetown Medical School, Dr. Snyder trained as a research associate at the National Institutes of Health from 1963 to 1965, and was a resident in psychiatry at the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine from 1965 to 1968. He joined the faculty there in 1966 as an assistant professor of pharmacology and, in 1970, was granted full professorship.

Dr. Snyder is a pioneering figure in the field of neuropsychopharmacology. His key discoveries have contributed in innumerable ways to the advancement of scientists' understanding of the neurobiology of brain disorders and their treatments. Of the many discoveries originating from his laboratory, two of the most notable are the characterization of opiate receptors—leading to a greater understanding of pain perception and its treatment—and the role of nitric oxide in neurotransmission. His lifelong efforts have had a major impact on the understanding of molecular mechanisms of drug action, and on drug discovery in the pharmaceutical industry for the treatment of Alzheimer's and Parkinson's diseases, stroke, and schizophrenia.

Dr. Snyder is the author or coauthor of more than 1,000 journal articles. He has written six research books and serves on major scientific editorial boards. In 2005, Dr. Snyder was awarded the nation's highest scientific honor, the National Medal of Science. Numerous other recognitions include the Albert Lasker Award, the Albany Medical Prize, the Bower Award of the Franklin Institute, and the Gerard Prize of the Society for Neuroscience. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Sciences and a fellow of both the American Academy of Arts and Sciences and the American Philosophical Society.

Ellen J. Tressel

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

Ellen J. Tressel has defined her role as an ambassador for The Ohio State University in ways both exceptional and enduring. Shortly after accompanying her husband, head football coach Jim Tressel, to the university in 2001, she began to fill compelling needs at Ohio State and in the community through service and stewardship.

Ms. Tressel's belief that a world-class library is at the heart of a learning community was manifested in her leadership during the extremely successful campaign for renovation of Thompson Library at Ohio State. Serving as co-chair with her husband, she worked tirelessly to secure resources for the magnificent structure that now stands at the head of the Oval. In addition, the Tressels have been generous in their personal support of Thompson Library.

Ms. Tressel has been an equally enthusiastic volunteer in an effort to raise funds and awareness for the James Cancer Center and Solove Research Institute, serving as honorary co-chair for the Power to Change Lives Campaign that helped raise more than $104 million to support cancer research and expansion programs. Her philanthropic efforts also include ProjectONE, a $1 billion expansion project for The Ohio State University Medical Center. A frequent speaker to community groups, she donates her honoraria to the Tressel Family Fund for Cancer Research and Prevention.

Ms. Tressel's community involvement is far reaching and includes service on the boards of directors for The James Foundation, Mount Carmel College of Nursing, Nationwide Children's Hospital Center for Child and Family Advocacy, West Ohio United Methodist Conference, and Buckeye Boosters. She and her family also remain engaged in the Youngstown area, most recently providing funding for the Watson and Tressel Training Site at Youngstown State University.

Ms. Tressel is an alumna of Youngstown State University, where she earned a degree in business education in 1975, and a graduate of the Security Industries Association program at the Wharton School of Finance. Her financial career began at her family business, The Youngstown Welding and Engineering Company. She later joined brokerage firm Butler Wick and Co., where she held the post of vice president of trading before relocating to Columbus.

The Ohio State University 2010-2011 Class Gift

On the eve of graduation in 1891, a group of Ohio State students planted five elm trees on the Oval. Now, more than a century later, "The Five Brothers" grove still grows and the tradition of bestowing a Class Gift upon the university continues.

Through the years, graduating seniors have helped shape the campus experience of countless students, alumni, and friends of Ohio State by offering a Class Gift. The chimes of Orton Hall, "The Long Walk" on the Oval, the beautification of Mirror Lake, and University Hall's tower clock are but a few of the special projects funded by students wishing to commemorate their time spent at this great university.

Now, the Classes of 2010 and 2011 have an opportunity to leave a unique legacy and participate in Ohio State's history of giving. By making a gift to Ohio State, graduating seniors can express appreciation for the education they've received while leaving an indelible and environmentally sustainable mark on their alma mater. The Cunz Hall Rain Garden will be enjoyed by students for years to come.

As we continue to build for the future by building on the foundations of the past, graduates who wish to commit $20.11 (or other amount) as part of the 2010-2011 Class Gift may do so online at studentcampaign.osu.edu.

The university congratulates the graduates of 2011 and thanks them for their contributions to the Ohio State community.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT GEE

Graduates:

Perhaps the last thing you want to do today, after four or more years of reading textbooks and articles assigned by professors, is read one more piece from one more “expert.” I understand perfectly. Today is a day for celebration, for throwing your arms high above your head and shouting, “Yes! I did it!”

But nonetheless, I include this letter in your commencement program because I believe a bit of extra encouragement is in order. You will leave the university today with a hard-won degree in your hand, and with hope in your heart. For each of you, hope looks different. One graduate may be searching for an entry-level job in a highly competitive field, while another will be entering graduate school and a new set of academic challenges, and still another might be completing requirements for professional advancement. But as different as your paths may be, they share the convergence of both this occasion and this great university.

Here is what I hope for you: a future in which your Ohio State experience resonates, where being a Buckeye is just the start of your success. The world needs you and the knowledge and skills you gained at this university. I am confident that you will make your university proud.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "E. Gordon Gee".

E. Gordon Gee
President

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION

On behalf of The Ohio State University Alumni Association, we congratulate you on your academic achievement! For you, one era has passed and another is about to begin. In receiving your degree today, you are joining a distinguished body of nearly 480,000 Ohio State alumni who are making a difference in all parts of the world.

Your university has provided you with a well-rounded education that will help you become the leaders of tomorrow. We encourage you to build on your many accomplishments by doing something great: pay forward to your communities and make a difference in the lives of others.

We want you always to be passionate about your alma mater and continue to stay connected virtually: ohiostatealumni.org, and through membership in The Ohio State University Alumni Association. We want to be your gateway in connecting with Ohio State. Therefore, your first year of membership is complimentary and includes many benefits, such as a subscription to Ohio State Alumni Magazine, which will help you stay informed about the university's ambitious agenda and connected with friends and classmates. In addition, the Alumni Association offers many educational programs for its members and networking opportunities, including alumni clubs in every state and in many countries around the world, and alumni societies connected with your colleges.

We celebrate you today and wholeheartedly share in your enthusiasm and all that you have achieved. Your success is driving Ohio State's move from excellence to eminence, and we will continue to count on you to carry on the university's rich and vibrant tradition and reputation. Again, congratulations to you, your family, friends, and all who have helped you reach this milestone in your life as you receive your diploma from The Ohio State University.

Sincerely,

This program is not an official graduation list.

This printed program lists students who were eligible to graduate for Winter Quarter 2011, as of 5:00 p.m., March 11, 2011, pending the outcome of final examinations and final grades. Therefore, it should not be used to determine a student's academic or degree status. The University's official registry for conferral of degrees is the student's permanent academic record, kept by the Office of the University Registrar, Student Academic Services Building, 281 West Lane Avenue, Columbus, OH 43210-1132.

Graduates with Honors

Criteria for graduating with honors are listed below. Grade-point averages (GPA) are based on the student's penultimate quarter.

Summa Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.9 GPA or better.

Magna Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.7 GPA or better.

32 *denotes Distinguished Military Graduate
denotes Distinguished Air Force Graduate
denotes Distinguished Naval Graduate

Cum Laude designates those who earned a 3.5 GPA or better.

With Honors in Business/Accounting requires successful completion of a prescribed honors program of study and graduation with a 3.5 GPA or better.

With Honors in Education and Human Ecology requires successful completion of an honors experience contract and graduation with a 3.4 GPA or better.

With Honors in Engineering requires successful completion of an honors experience contract and graduation with a 3.4 GPA or better.

With Honors in the Arts and Sciences requires successful completion of the Arts and Sciences Honors Contract and graduation with a 3.4 GPA or better.

With Distinction requires successful completion of a Senior Honors Thesis and a 3.4 GPA or better.

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably influenced the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As the control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns, and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square—a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction, and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

Doctor: Four feet in length with a five-inch-wide velvet edging and panel at the sides.

The lining of all hoods, which is folded out, bears the official colors of the institution granting the degree. The color of the velvet indicates the field of study.
