Pomp, circumstance, and other songs of a lifetime

by Professor David Citino, 1947–2005, Late University Poet Laureate

(Originally presented as the 2000 Winter Commencement address)

If you're like me, you've got a big head, not to mention a funny robe, full of music—poems and melodies, the tunes we move to, shower and shave by, study, write to. Not just the incidental, but the momentous music keeping time. Our histories are measures of song. Listen to your heart: drums of Africa, sea-spume of blind, far-sighted Homer, Sappho's honeyed love lyrics. Often, music speaks for us, one note saying a thousand words. Like Rodolpho in Puccini's La Boheme, Sono un poeta. I am a poet. Che cosa faccio? What do I do? Scrivo. I write. This ceremony is loud music—pomp and circumstance of the life you began freshman year or that first day of graduate school. In my head I press Play, and the CD of Big Days kicks on. I leap and linger over moments too sweet, nearly, for words. I'll never escape rhymes from the nursery. Up above the world so high, like a diamond in the sky. We knew from the start our universe was aglow with wonder.

Italian, Latin, English songs in nasal accents of Cleveland. Gaudeteamus igitur, Juvenes dum sumus. So, let us rejoice, while we are young. Youth is that gift we can't comprehend while we're young. This ceremony means you all are less young than you were. Don't let the heavy knowledge gained from your studies deprive you of the gifts of youth, to be able to rejoice at the drop of a hat, to care for, be moved by others.

Now I hear golden hits of five decades. Big Mama Thornton, and that so-called King (King of what, fried butter sandwiches?) who stole away her hound dog. You ain't never killed a rabbit, you ain't no friend of mine. As with those profs and TAs, course after course, you had to produce—kill some rabbits—to earn respect. And at times OSU may have seemed like Heartbreak Hotel, down at the end to do your best. Tennessee Ernie Ford, "Sixteen Tons": St. Peter don't you call me 'Cause I can't go. I owe my soul to the company store.

You have been digging deep in mines of knowledge. We all owe our souls to Ohio State, company store of learning, shared experience—precious ore we have in common forever.

Now I hear Domenico Modugno's fervent urging to wish, sing, fly, Volare, Wo-oo. Cantare, Wo-o-o-o. My grandfather was a peasant farmer, a contadino in Calabria in the toe of Italy. He knew it's the human lot to dream of flying. Lucky, lucky, lucky me, I'm a lucky son-of-a-gun. I work eight hours, I sleep eight hours, That leaves eight hours for fun.

Hey! He sailed in steerage across the Atlantic, came to Cleveland, where he stayed long enough to work 52 years for the B&O Railroad, before lying down to rest in good Ohio soil. So many of us here today came from elsewhere, or ancestors did. From Tennessee, Italy, Africa, Asia, Appalachia—even, President Kirwan, the wilds of Kentucky and Maryland. Women and men with backs supple as birch trunks. The courage it took to pick up stakes and begin again in a new world! Think of the work those older ones did. For you. You all are facing a change right now.

This sheepskin is your passport. You're bound for emigration to the next song of your life. Ohio State is the ark on which you've been sailing. You've been the precious cargo.

But, as Noah once said, I can see clearly now the rain is gone. The ark, our university, was filled to overflowing with the diversity of us. Diversity. Networks and talk shows devalue the word. I say, rather, the richness of us, precious difference, the grand multiplicity of

*Oh! Come let's sing Ohio's praise,
And songs to Alma Mater raise;
While our hearts rebounding thrill,

COMMENCEMENT ADDRESS

Sherrod Brown

Ohio's senior U.S. Senator, Sherrod Brown, is an alumnus of The Ohio State University and a distinguished elected official who has devoted his life to public service. Over the course of his career, he has advanced the interests of Ohioans and Americans alike in the name of equality, justice and dignity.

First elected to the U.S. House of Representatives in 1992, Senator Brown served Ohio's 13th Congressional District until 2007, when he was sworn in to the U.S. Senate. During his tenure in public office, he has championed workers' rights and American manufacturing, taken on Wall Street, advocated for veterans and service members, assisted communities combating the opioid crisis, promoted affordability and accessibility in higher education and modernized federal agricultural policies.

A former instructor at Ohio State's Mansfield campus, Senator Brown has been a strong advocate for Ohio colleges and universities. He established the first-of-its-kind annual Ohio College and University Presidents Conference held in Washington, D.C., to address the higher education and job training needs of the state. In addition, he founded the Propel Ohio program to encourage civic engagement and leadership among undergraduate students.

He is also an avid supporter of My Brother's Keeper, a national organization that works to expand academic opportunities for boys and young men of color.

Prior to his election to Congress, Senator Brown served as Ohio secretary of state and was a member of the Ohio General Assembly. He is currently the ranking member of the Senate Banking Committee and a member of the Senate committees on Finance; Agriculture, Nutrition and Forestry; and Veterans' Affairs.

Born in Mansfield, Ohio, Senator Brown received his undergraduate degree from Yale University before continuing his education at Ohio State, earning master's degrees in education and public administration. He is married to Pulitzer Prize-winning columnist Connie Schultz. They live in Cleveland and have four children and seven grandchildren.

RECIPIENT OF HONORS

Katherine Lien Kisker

DISTINGUISHED SERVICE AWARD

A two-time graduate of The Ohio State University, Katherine “Kitty” Kisker has dedicated her career to fostering a more equitable and accessible higher education system. She has served Ohio State for over five decades as a faculty member, advisor and volunteer leader, throughout which she promoted student success and enhanced the welfare of the campus community.

Ms. Kisker’s relationship with the university began in 1963, when she enrolled as an undergraduate nursing student. After earning her bachelor’s degree in 1966 and master’s degree in 1967, she accepted a faculty position with Ohio State’s College of Nursing in 1968.

In addition to teaching, Ms. Kisker served as a faculty advisor for many of the university’s premier service organizations, including Ohio Staters Inc. and Mortar Board and serving as the director of student affairs and college secretary in the College of Nursing. In those roles, she created an empowering environment for students and enabled them to lead the development and implementation of impactful community service projects.

In addition to advocating for students, Ms. Kisker also made significant contributions to academic affairs at Ohio State through her service on dozens of college and university committees. Notably, she coordinated the university’s Committee on Academic Misconduct from 1993 to 2002. During her tenure, Ms. Kisker spearheaded the rewriting of academic misconduct rules to ensure equitable processes for both students and faculty.

Ms. Kisker is the recipient of numerous university honors, including the College of Nursing’s Distinguished Alumni and Community Service awards, the Division of Student Affairs Distinguished Service Award and The Ohio State University Alumni Association’s Josephine S. Failer and Ralph D. Mershon awards.

Now retired, Ms. Kisker continues to advance the efforts of the university. She serves on the Alumni Advisory Council as a College of Nursing representative and works to raise funds for student scholarships. She lives in Columbus, Ohio, with her husband, Richard, who is also a loyal Buckeye alumnus.

A MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT DRAKE

Dear Graduates:

Congratulations! Few milestones are more significant — and few accomplishments more valuable — than earning the diploma you will receive today. You should be deeply proud of all you have achieved and grateful for those who helped you reach this moment.

As you prepare for your next step, know that you join an incredible legacy of leadership, innovation and discovery. For 150 years, Buckeye graduates have been a force for good in communities across our state and around the world. They have advanced science and medicine, enriched the arts, elevated young minds and even explored the stars. Let their examples guide you throughout your future and, when necessary, encourage you to forge your own path ahead.

The stories of our alumni — including the one you are just beginning to write — exemplify the breadth and depth of our university's unparalleled impact. Ohio State was founded in 1870 to create and share knowledge that changes lives and advances society. A century and a half later, we remain dedicated to solving challenges at home and around the world, and to connecting lives in deeply personal and meaningful ways.

This same spirit is reflected in you and your fellow graduates. Through your education, you have established a foundation for excellence and cultivated lifelong relationships that will endure through time and change. I also hope your experiences have inspired you to dream big and do good. Generations of Ohio State alumni have changed our world for the better, and I know you will, too. Congratulations on becoming a Buckeye for life.

Sincerely,

THE ACADEMIC COSTUME

The colorful ceremonies of The Ohio State University commencements derive from practices originating in the Middle Ages. When European universities were taking form in the 12th and 13th centuries, the scholars were usually clerics, and consequently they adopted costumes similar to those of their monastic orders. Cold halls and drafty buildings called for caps and floor-length capes with attached hoods, and the sobering influence of the church probably resulted in the staid character of the caps and gowns.

As control of the universities gradually passed from the church, some aspects of the costumes took on brighter hues. Old prints and engravings, however, reveal a strong similarity between the regalia worn in early universities and that of the present day.

In light of our nation's English heritage, academic costume has been in use in the United States since colonial times. To establish a standard of uniformity in regard to the practice, an intercollegiate commission was formed to prepare a code for caps, gowns and hoods that has since been adopted by all academic institutions.

Originally round, the shape of the cap is now the familiar mortarboard square —

a shape which, according to ballad folklore, resembles a scholar's book. Legend also has it that the privilege of wearing a cap was the initial right of a freed Roman slave; the academic cap, therefore, has become a sign of the freedom of scholarship. The flowing gown has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress that might indicate rank or social status. The hood, reserved at The Ohio State University for those receiving doctoral and master's degrees, not only indicates the type of degree, but also is lined with the official colors of the university.

The Gown

Bachelor: The bachelor gown is black, full cut with long pointed sleeves.

Master: The master gown is black, long or short sleeves, with an arc-shaped panel extended for each sleeve.

Doctor: The Ohio State University Doctor of Philosophy gown is scarlet with gray velvet panels on the front and three velvet bars on each sleeve. Other doctor gowns are black with velvet panels and bars, the color of which is distinctive of the field of study.

Honors Emblem

The Ohio State University honors emblem is a scarlet and gray tasseled braid worn over the gown. Students eligible for this curricular honor are those graduating summa cum laude, magna cum laude, cum laude, with distinction and with honors.

The Hood

Bachelor: Three feet long with a two-inch-wide velvet edging.*

Master: Three and one-half feet long with a three-inch-wide velvet edging.

selves that balance this globe and enable it to spin true. Grandson of peasant immigrants, I was given the opportunity to earn a doctorate in English literature from Ohio State—because my family labored long nights around the kitchen table trying to learn this arduous English. I sat where you're sitting twenty-six years ago. Bob Dylan and Smokey Robinson got me through. Yes, it took a prophet and Miracles! My son earned an OSU Ph.D. in history. Now you, graduates, are being honored—by degrees. We've all come together around the kitchen table of Ohio State. Ohio, Round on the ends and high in the middle. For the years to come we'll sing together, Beautiful Ohio, in dreams again I see, Visions of what used to be. These psalms, sacred thoughts of our tribes, 78's and 33's, tapes, CD's—they take up space in shelves of our skulls, our hearts. They remind us we want a song beyond the run-of-the-mill thrill, the moment throbbing with pleasure or bathed in the blues. We ache for something grander than pure selfishness. Songs sung for one alone are not true music. Arias shared are music of the spheres, ways of saying to another something from the soul. Of course the Buckeye Battle Cry is there. Drive, drive on down the field,

Men (and women!) of the Scarlet and Gray. Well, you drove on down the field, and you drove up and down the streets, around and around crowded lots, looking for a place to park, and you searched our dark, ancient library for a decent place to study. My wife, Mary's, father marched in the first "Script Ohio," in 1936. He's here today with us, blowing his horn, I can't help but feel, as is the sweet mother I lost last year, the one who gave me the stars.

Today's music makes us think of the debts we owe, and never can repay. So many of us would not be here were it not for the lullabyes and songs of dear parents, their parents, theirs. Some are here today in the flesh. Many are not. We mourn them with cadences of our hearts. Think how many people sang before us, gave us a name, a voice, taught us the right words. We must cherish them by remembering every song. When we sing to others, we honor our fathers and mothers, thank them for this day of profound scarlet and gray pomp and circumstance. O, come let's sing Ohio's praise, And songs to Alma Mater raise. Alma mater. Ohio State is our sweet, nurturing mother.

We came of age here, with her help. Well, Mother, we love you, but, like, it's time we moved out, got a place of our own. You're standing there, Mom, gray hair, eyes scarlet from crying. We won't forget you. Now, even though this ceremony means we're being weaned, taken off the nipple, let's take care to cherish her all our days. Let's remember the words to the songs she taught us, and pass them on. We'll remember always, Graduation Day. Summer's heat, and winter's cold, The seasons pass, the years will roll, Time and change will surely show How firm thy friendship, O-hi-O. We call that little number Carmen Ohio. Carmen means song in Latin. You've worked hard; she is your reward; today is your reward.

You're filled to overflowing with the notes, the poems we've written together. You know the score. Continue to work hard for yourselves, and one another. Find the ones who need you to sing to, for them, in the world. Graduates, this joyful litany, this hymn our ancestors collaborated on with us, the calling of your name today is music to our ears. Sing that name proudly all your days, as if your life depended on it. It does, you know. It has been an honor for me to speak—and sing—to you today. Thank you, graduates, and, again, Congratulations.
